Taylor, 2012-07-16 Interprofessional Rehabilitation a Person Centred Approach is a concise and readable introduction to the principles and practice of a person centred interprofessional approach to rehabilitation based upon a firm scientific evidence base Written by a multi contributor team of specialists in physiotherapy occupational therapy nursing psychology and rehabilitation medicine this text draws together common themes that cut across the different professional groups and the spectrum of health conditions requiring rehabilitation and sets out a model of practice that is tailored to the specific needs of the client Showing interprofessionalism at work in a range of clinical contexts the book argues that effective rehabilitation is best conducted by well integrated teams of specialists working in an interdisciplinary way with the client or patient actively involved in all stages of the process This book will be essential reading for students preparing for practice in an increasingly interprofessional environment and will be of interest to any health care practitioner keen to understand how an integrated approach to rehabilitation can benefit their clients Documentation and Reimbursement for Speech-Language

Pathologists Nancy Swigert, 2024-06-01 Although it is the least noticed by patients effective documentation is one of the most critical skills that speech language pathologists must learn With that in mind Documentation and Reimbursement for

Speech Language Pathologists Principles and Practice provides a comprehensive guide to documentation coding and reimbursement across all work settings. The text begins with section 1 covering the importance of documentation and the basic rules both ethical and legal followed by an exploration of the various documentation forms and formats. Also included are tips on how to use electronic health records as well as different coding systems for diagnosis and for procedures with an emphasis on the link between coding reimbursement and the documentation to support reimbursement. Section 2 explains the importance of focusing on function in patient centered care with the ICF as the conceptual model then goes on to cover each of the types of services speech language pathologists provide evaluation treatment planning therapy and discharge planning. Multiple examples of forms and formats are given for each. In section 3 Nancy Swigert and her expert team of contributors dedicate each chapter to a work setting in which speech language pathologists might work whether adult or pediatric because each setting has its own set of documentation and reimbursement challenges. And since client documentation is not the only kind of writing done by speech language pathologists a separate chapter on other professional writing includes information on how to write correspondence avoid common mistakes and even prepare effective PowerPoint presentations. Each chapter in Documentation and Reimbursement for Speech Language Pathologists contains activities to apply information learned in that chapter as well as review questions for students to test their knowledge. Customizable samples of many types of forms and reports are also available. Included with the text are online supplemental materials for faculty use in the classroom. Documentation and Reimbursement for Speech Language Pathologists Principles and Practice is the perfect text for speech language pathology students to learn these vital skills but it will also provide clinical supervisors new clinicians and speech language pathologists starting a private practice or managing a department with essential information about documentation coding and reimbursement.
