Living With Grief Kenneth J. Doka, 2014-01-14 First published in 1996 This book was produced as a companion to the Hospice Foundation of America s third annual teleconference The Foundation begun in 1982 is a nonprofit organization dedicated to providing leadership in the development of hospice and its philosophy of care for terminally ill people The Foundation conducts educational programs related to hospice sponsors research on ethical questions as well as the economics of health care at the end of life and serves as a philanthropic presence within the national hospice community Close to 90 percent of hospices in the United States reach beyond their own patients and families to become in a variety of ways a community resource on grief and bereavement That is part of the hospice mission and an important service which the Hospice Foundation of America encourages and tries to support Our annual teleconference is a major part of our effort and it like all of our projects is largely underwritten by contributions from individuals The Hospice Foundation of America is a member of the Combined Federal Campaign through Health Charities of Americas The Hospice Foundation of America is a member of the Combined Federal Campaign through Health Charities of America The Trauma Heart Judy

Crane,2017-06-27 The majority of people addicted to substances or process addictions such as relationship disorders eating disorders self harming behaviors gambling or pornography are trauma survivors Many people caught in the web of addiction don't identify as trauma survivors until their personal familial intergenerational and in uterine history is exposed

Unfortunately relapse is inevitable without trauma resolution that can only take place once their history is exposed It is only when that happens that the behavior disorders will finally make sense For almost 30 years Judy Crane has worked with clients and families who are in great pain due to destructive and dangerous behaviors Families often believe that their loved one must be bad or defective and the one struggling with the addiction not only believes it too but feels it to their core The truth is the whole family is embroiled in their own individual survival coping mechanisms the addicted member is often the red flag indicating that the whole family needs healing In The Trauma Heart Crane explores the many ways that life's events impact each member of the family She reveals the essence of trauma and addictions treatment through the stories art and assignments of former clients and the staff who worked with them offering a snapshot of their pain and healing The
