produced nothing less than the A Z of marketing He has journeyed far and wide mapping out hundreds of business marketing and communications models to produce an extremely useful industry atlas Certainly it will find a well thumbbed home on my bookshelf Hamish Pringle Director General Institute of Practitioners in Advertising This book is much needed by marketing Its value is in challenging concepts some of which have been the accepted norm for a long time But as this book shows some of these may no longer be relevant and appropriate for marketers in today s consumer environment Mike Johnston CEO Dairy Council of Northern Ireland and former Chairman of the Chartered Institute of Marketing Senior marketers like those who make up the membership of the Marketing Society hone the methods and techniques they favour as their career develops Laurie Young clearly did that and an experienced voice shines through this critique It is heartening to find that so many concepts have a long history of producing real value for businesses but alarming to find so many of the theorists favourites to be so groundless Hugh Burkitt CEO The Marketing Society
