Online Museum Collections and Social Media Katharina Geis, 2025-07-17 Museums increasingly digitize collections to expand public access and foster engagement beyond institutional spaces Katharina Geis explores how digital museum images are used shared and curated across platforms like Instagram TikTok and Pinterest Drawing on ethnographic research including participant observation and 90 interviews she examines how digital infrastructures and social contexts shape curation practices By tracing how users search for edit and share images the study reveals how digital image curation becomes a way of knowing about with and through artefacts in everyday life

You Should Quit Reddit Jacob Desforges, 2023-02-21 In recent years countless books articles and documentaries have addressed the negative effects that social media platforms have wrought on their users and society However these former works are incomplete nearly no attention has been paid to Reddit one of the most popular websites in the world Reddit is certainly unique among social platforms but its potential for addiction and darker side of nefarious activity should absolutely not be understated Additionally nearly no actionable advice has been provided to users of these platforms The audience is told that these websites and apps are harming their mental health wasting their time and that they are addictive which would logically make the task of quitting rather difficult but then provided zero guidance on how to disconnect from them Over 200 000 users gather on Reddit's r/NoSurf community to discuss reducing their internet use the forum is filled with reports of people who want to quit Reddit but find themselves psychologically compelled to return to the site over and over For moderate to heavy users of these platforms quitting is clearly not so simple You Should Quit Reddit is a paradigm shift in the genre Jacob Desforges was a Reddit user of over a decade and a self admitted Reddit addict who spent on average around three hours daily on the site Not only is this the first book investigating Reddit's flaws as a platform but it is also written from the perspective of someone who experienced firsthand the struggle that comes with quitting these addictive platforms This book therefore also provides readers with the practical advice tools and techniques needed to shatter the cycle of digital addiction enabling them to quit visiting Reddit and other time wasting websites for good so they can effectively reclaim their time to use in a more intentional manner

Information Retrieval Evaluation in a Changing World Nicola Ferro, Carol Peters, 2019-08-13 This volume celebrates the twentieth anniversary of CLEF the Cross Language Evaluation Forum for the first ten years and the Conference and Labs of the Evaluation Forum since and traces its evolution over these first two decades CLEF's main mission is to promote research innovation and development of information retrieval IR systems by anticipating trends in information management in order to stimulate advances in the field of IR system experimentation and evaluation The book is divided into six parts Parts I and II provide background and context with the first part explaining what is meant by experimental evaluation and the underlying theory and describing how this has been interpreted in CLEF and in other internationally recognized evaluation initiatives Part II presents research architectures and infrastructures that have been developed to manage experimental data and to provide evaluation services in CLEF and elsewhere Parts III IV and V represent the core of the book presenting some of the most significant evaluation activities in CLEF ranging from the early multilingual text processing exercises to the later more sophisticated experiments on multimodal collections in diverse genres and media In all cases the focus is not only on describing what has been achieved but above all on what has been learnt The final part examines the impact CLEF has had on the research world and discusses current and future challenges both academic and industrial including the relevance of IR benchmarking in industrial settings Mainly intended for researchers in academia and industry it also offers useful insights and tips for practitioners in industry working on the evaluation and performance issues of IR tools and graduate students specializing in information retrieval

(1548-1617)* John P. Doyle, 2010 Although the Jesuit Francisco Suarez 1548-1617 is one of the most important figures of late scholasticism his work has not received the attention it deserves in English speaking scholarly literature One exception to this generalization is found in the work of the American scholar John P. Doyle whose ground breaking studies of several important areas of Suarez's complex but highly original system of thought have helped to make the Jesuit's ideas accessible to several generations of historians of philosophy This volume gathers together Doyle's most important articles on the philosophical theology metaphysics ethics and legal philosophy of Suarez and is prefaced by an introductory chapter that places the Jesuit's life and thought in context

Literary Characters in Intellectual Property Law Jani McCutcheon, 2023-03-02 This ground breaking book critically interrogates how literary characters are regulated under copyright moral rights and trademark law challenging important foundations that underscore engagement with literary characters Using interesting examples and referencing literary theory Literary Characters in Intellectual Property Law offers an in depth exploration of both the law and the diverse and conflicting interests that are impacted by literary character appropriation incorporating the perspectives of owners authors appropriators and consumers
