Stiffed The Betrayal Of The Modern Man:

Stiffed Susan Faludi, 2011-11-30 With the publication of Backlash Pulitzer prize winning journalist Susan Faludi became a world renowned authority on the gender war and backlash in the gender sense became a household word Stiffed picks up where Backlash left off It seeks to understand male behaviour in order to close the chasm between the sexes and asks the all important question why Why are men so fearful and aggressive in the face of women s independence Why is a little liberation seen as too much What is it that men really fear and why Where other theorists have looked at The Woman Question Faludi shows us that we should really focus on The Man Question at the end of the millennium it is men who are in crisis With her sharp historical sense meticulous documentation and lively probing reportage and with a remarkable empathy she argues that men as well as women are at the mercy of social forces distorting their lives She takes us on a journey through the modern masculine landscape with unexpected revelations along the way from the shuttered shipyards to the mass lay offs of the defence industries from Hollywood action heroes to gang torn streets from militia men to Promise Keepers praying husbands to male porn actors

The Handbook of Gender, Sex, and Media Karen Ross, 2013-12-04 The Handbook of Gender Sex and Media offers original insights into the complex set of relations which exist between gender sex sexualities and the media and in doing so showcases new research at the forefront of media and communication practice and theory Brings together a collection of new cutting edge research exploring a number of different facets of the broad relationship between gender and media Moves beyond associating gender with man woman and instead considers the relationship between the construction of gender norms biological sex and the mediation of sex and sexuality Offers genuinely new insights into the complicated and complex set of relations which exist between gender sex sexualities and the media Essay topics range from the continuing sexism of TV advertising to ways in which the internet is facilitating the re invention of our sexual selves

Ghosts of Iron Mountain Phil Tinline, 2025-03-25 A compelling work of investigative journalism that explores the surprising origins and hidden ramifications of an epic late 1960s hoax perpetrated by cultural luminaries including Victor Navasky and E L Doctorow For readers curious about the surprising connections between John F Kennedy Oliver Stone Timothy McVeigh Alex Jones and Donald Trump

Bound and Unbound Zowie Davy, Julia Downes, Lena Eckert, 2009-05-05 This edited book has developed from the themes connections and disjunctures that emerged from a two day postgraduate conference on Thinking Gender The Next Generation in 2006 at the University of Leeds The editorial collective is comprised by Zowie Davy Julia Downes Dario Llinares and Ana Cristina Santos from the Centre for Interdisciplinary Gender Studies CIGS University of Leeds Lena Eckert from the University of Utrecht and Natalia Gerodetti who is a Senior Lecturer at Leeds Metropolitan University

Postfeminism and Paternity in Contemporary US Film Hannah Hamad, 2013-10-15 This book interrogates representations of fatherhood across the spectrum of popular U S film of the early twenty first century It situates them in relation to postfeminist discourse identifying and discussing dominant paradigms and tropes that emerge from the tendency of popular cinema to configure ideal masculinity in paternal terms It analyses postfeminist fatherhood across a range of genres including historical epics war films westerns bromantic comedies male melodramas action films family comedies and others It also explores recurring themes and intersections such as the rejuvenation of aging masculinities through fatherhood the paternalized recuperation of immature adult masculinities the relationship between fatherhood in film and 9 11 culture post racial discourse in representations of fatherhood and historically located formations of fatherhood It is the first book length study to explore the relationship between fatherhood and postfeminism in popular cinema

Cultures of Masculinity Tim Edwards, 2004-08-02 Presenting a survey of the social cultural and theoretical issues which surround and inform our understanding of masculinity this book explores the interface between traditional sociological approaches and the work covered by more post structural media driven or cultural perspectives Edwards well known for his work on representations of masculinities uses grounded examples of the job market and domestic violence to set his theoretical discussion He argues that there is a need for more dialogue on men and masculinities between disciplines and considers the validity of the concerns and anxieties which surround masculinity in the contemporary world through a range of key topics including the new man the new lad and men s movements men masculinity and violence marginalized masculinities black masculinity and gay male sexuality queer theory performativity and fashion cinema representation and the body One of the most comprehensive and progressive studies of modern masculinity available this book will be essential reading for students of gender culture and sociology

War, Identity and the Liberal State Victoria Basham, 2013-07-24 This book critically examines the significance of gender race and sexuality to wars waged by liberal states Drawing on original field research with British soldiers it offers insights into how their everyday experiences are shaped by and shape a politics of gender race and sexuality that not only underpins power relations in the military but the geopolitics of wars waged by liberal states Linking the politics of daily life to the international is an intervention into international relations IR and security studies because instead of overlooking the politics of the everyday this book insists that it is vital to explore how geopolitical events and practices are co constituted reinforced and contested by it By utilising insights from Michel Foucault the book explores how shared and collectively mediated knowledge on gender race and sexuality facilitates certain claims about the nature of governing in liberal states and about why and how such states wage war against illiberal ones in pursuit of global peace and security The book also develops post structural work in international relations by urging scholars interested in the linguistic construction of geopolitics to consider the ways in which bodies objects and architectures also reinforce particular ideas about war identity and statehood

Detecting Men Philippa Gates, 2012-02-01 Detecting Men examines the history of the Hollywood detective genre and the ways that detective films have negotiated changing social attitudes toward masculinity heroism law enforcement and justice Genre film can be a site for the expression and resolution of problematic social issues but while there have been many studies of such other male genres as war films gangster films and Westerns relatively little attention has been paid to detective films beyond film noir In this volume Philippa Gates examines classical films of the thirties and forties as well as recent examples of the genre including Die Hard the Lethal Weapon films The Usual Suspects Seven Devil in a Blue Dress and Murder by Numbers in order to explore social anxieties about masculinity and crime and Hollywood's conceptions of gender Up until the early 1990s Gates argues the primary focus of the detective genre was the masculinity of the hero However from the mid 1990s onward the genre has shifted to more technical portrayals of crime scene investigation forensic science and criminal profiling offering a reassuring image of law enforcement in the face of violent crime By investigating the evolution of the detective film Gates suggests perhaps we can detect the male

Hanif Kureishi B. J. Moore-Gilbert, 2001 This comprehensive critical study of Hanif Kureishi details the writer's career to date Kureishi has explored a number of key social and cultural issues of recent years including the legacies of colonialism the paradoxes of multi culturalism changing conceptions of class gender and sexuality globalization and relations between popular culture and the canon Bart Moore Gilbert's authoritative text places Kureishi's writing in its historical social cultural and critical contexts and provides detailed readings of his major works

American Fiction of the 1990s Jay Prosser, 2016-04-01 American Fiction of the 1990s Reflections of History and Culture brings together essays from international experts to examine one of the most vital and energized decades in American literature This volume reads the rich body of 1990s American fiction in the context of key cultural concerns of the period The issues that the contributors identify as especially productive include Immigration and America's geographical borders particularly those with Latin America Racial tensions race relations and racial exchanges Historical memory and the recording of history Sex scandal and the politicization of sexuality Postmodern technologies terrorism and paranoia American Fiction of the 1990s examines texts by established authors such as Don DeLillo Toni Morrison Philip Roth and Thomas Pynchon who write some of their most ambitious work in the period but also by emergent writers such as Sherman Alexie Chang Rae Lee E Annie Proulx David Foster Wallace and Jonathan Franzen Offering new insight into both the literature and the culture of the period as well as the interaction between the two in a way that furthers the New American Studies this volume will be essential reading for students and lecturers of American literature and culture and late twentieth century fiction Contributors include Timothy Aubry Alex Blazer Kasia Boddy Stephen J Burn Andrew Dix Brian Jarvis Suzanne W Jones Peter Knight A Robert Lee Stacey Olster Derek Parker Royal Krishna Sen Zoe Trodd Andrew Warnes and Nahem Yousaf
