Women Leaders in School Psychology Carol S. Lidz, 2020-08-24 This book offers the autobiographical reflections of prominent women school psychologists who are at or near completion of their careers It demonstrates the varied and diverse journeys of these women in their own words The volume examines the ways in which leading women in the field have evolved from primarily frontline service providers to full contributors at all levels of the profession Chapters offer insights into school psychology movers and shakers and explores how many found a home in academia where they became trainers of the next generation In addition chapters examine the opportunities and restraints that these women leaders confronted across the years The book celebrates the success of these women and encourages both women and men to pursue roles in the profession

Women Leaders in School Psychology is an informative read for graduate students and scientist practitioners as well as researchers professors and other professionals in child and school psychology educational policy and politics family studies social work public health clinical and developmental psychology and all related psychology mental health and education disciplines

Clinical and Educational Child Psychology Linda Wilmschurst, 2013-01-22 Clinical and Educational Child Psychology There is no shortage of books on developmental psychopathology but what is unique about this one is the effort to bridge clinical and educational practice with school practice It is very well conceptualized and the ecological and transactional approach is very appropriate to the subject matter In fact it is the only framework capable of providing a full picture of children's mental health problems This book is highly relevant for psychologists working with children and families as well as for teachers and special education professionals

Isaac Prilleltensky PhD Dean School of Education and Human Development Professor of Educational and Psychological Studies University of Miami Clinical and Educational Child Psychology An Ecological transactional Approach to Understanding Child Problems and Interventions examines developmental patterns in children aged 3 to 18 and the challenges that influence their developmental trajectory Adopting a transactional ecological perspective Linda Wilmschurst explores the reasons why some children exposed to a variety of stressors may become vulnerable to a host of clinical educational and mental health problems Initial chapters explore theoretical models and developmental milestones from early childhood through adolescence Coverage also includes a variety of contemporary issues in the psychopathology of children and adolescents with discussion of neurodevelopmental and disruptive behavior disorders anxiety and mood disorders attention and learning disorders later onset disorders such as substance abuse and eating disorders and issues of maltreatment that can result in trauma disorders Through an innovative presentation that combines clinical and educational psychological approaches Clinical and Educational Child Psychology offers unique insights into our understanding of behavioral issues during the transition from childhood to adolescence
