A History of Philosophy: History of modern philosophy Friedrich Ueberweg, 1874 Course of the History of Modern Philosophy Victor Cousin, 1852 A Dark History of Modern Philosophy Bernard Freydberg, 2017-08-14 This provocative reassessment of modern philosophy explores its nonrational dimensions and connection to ancient mysteries Delving beneath the principal discourses of philosophy from Descartes through Kant Bernard Freydberg plumbs the previously concealed dark forces that ignite the inner power of modern thought He contends that reason itself issues from an implicit and unconscious suppression of the nonrational Even the modern philosophical concerns of nature and limits are undergirded by a dark side that dwells in them and makes them possible Freydberg traces these dark sources to the poetry of Hesiod the fragments of Heraclitus and Parmenides and the Platonic dialogues and claims that they rear their heads again in the work of Spinoza Schelling and Nietzsche Freydberg does not set forth a critique of modern philosophy but explores its intrinsic continuity with its ancient roots Information and the History of Philosophy Chris Meyns, 2021-06-17 In recent years the philosophy of information has emerged as an important area of research in philosophy However until now information s philosophical history has been largely overlooked Information and the History of Philosophy is the first comprehensive investigation of the history of philosophical questions around information including work from before the Common Era to the twenty first century It covers scientific and technology centred notions of information views of human information processing as well as socio political topics such as the control and use of information in societies Organised into
