The Other Side Of A Frontier:

The Other Side of the Mountain Ian W Shaw, 2020-02-01 In the early 1800s the Great Australian Unknown would be slowly revealed in part by formal government expeditions but also by runaway convicts little known and privately funded explorers and pastoralists seeking both knowledge of what lay beyond and land to occupy Through extensive research and with engaging storytelling The Other Side of the Mountain brings three of these men's stories together into a single enthralling narrative Ralph Entwistle runaway convict and bushranger who led a brief and briefly successful rebellion against the brutality of the convict system on the fringes of New South Wales western plains John Horrocks an English textiles magnate who brought most of his village from the north of England to Adelaide and beyond and who was the first to explore Australia's parched interior by camel a decision that cost him his life and Horace Wills a printer rebel overlander pastoralist and politician who gave up everything to push the frontier back in the far north of the continent While our history books recount the momentous advances made when Europeans spread across the continent the stories of Ralph Entwistle John Horrocks and Horace Wills are a reminder that those advances were almost always built on smaller endeavours often made by people whose names we rarely hear today but whose impacts were often of the greatest significance Los mediterráneos Abdul Filali Ansari, Frontier Regions in Western Europe Malcolm Anderson, 2013-07-23 First published in 1983 The problem of defining a frontier region is a leitmotiv of this collection of articles but each perspective requires its own definition The definition of regions has long been controversial and the attempt to define a sub set of them frontier regions according to precise geographical or socio economic criteria can be useful only for limited purposes as for example in the study of transfrontier labour markets This text looks at the borders regions in Western Europe in terms of transfrontier co operation geographical definitions physical planning economics and political authority Frontiers Michel Butor, Christian Jacomino, 1989 Native Authenticity Deborah L. Madsen, 2012-02-01 An indispensable resource for readers students and scholars of Native literatures in North America Native Authenticity offers a clear comprehensive and systematic look at the diversity of critical approaches to the idea of Indian ness Some of the foremost transatlantic scholars of Native Studies in North America and Europe share their insights on this highly charged aspect of the contemporary theoretical field of Native Studies The issue of authenticity or Indian ness generates a controversial debate in studies of indigenous American literatures The articulation of Native identity through the prism of Euro American attempts to confine Indian groups to essentialized spaces is resisted by some Native writers while others recognize a need for essentialist categories as a key strategy in the struggle for social justice and a perpetually renewed sense of Native sovereignty Pressure from neo colonial essentializing practices is in conflict with a politics of cultural sovereignty which demands a notion of Indian essence or authenticity as a foundation for community values heritage and social justice Contributors participate in a scholarly and pedagogical search for an intellectual paradigm for Native literary studies that is apart from yet cognizant with powerful colonial legacies The complex politics of Polynesian authenticity versus Native indigeneity is engaged by Native Hawaiian writers as they negotiate conflicting demands upon personal and tribal identities Related to this questioning is the authenticity debate in Canadian First Nations writing where the claim to authenticity rests upon a claim to historical precedence also related is the highly contentious claim by some Chicano writers to an indigenous heritage as a claim to authority and American authenticity Essays in this volume are focused upon the diverse and sophisticated responses of Native writers and scholars while offering comparative perspectives on Native Hawaiian Chicano and Canadian literatures

Colonial frontiers Lynette Russell, 2017-03-01 Cross cultural encounters produce boundaries and frontiers This book explores the formation structure and maintenance of boundaries and frontiers in settler colonies The southern nations of Australia New Zealand and South Africa have a common military heritage as all three united to fight for the British Empire during the Boer and First World Wars The book focuses on the southern latitudes and especially Australia and Australian historiography Looking at cross cultural interactions in the settler colonies the book illuminates the formation of new boundaries and the interaction between settler societies and indigenous groups It contends that the frontier zone is a hybrid space a place where both indigene and invader come together on land that each one believes to be their own The best way to approach the northern Cape frontier zone is via an understanding of the significance of the frontier in South African history The book explores some ways in which discourses of a natural prehistoric Aboriginality inform colonial representations of the Australian landscape and its inhabitants both indigenous and immigrant The missions of the London Missionary Society LMS in Polynesia and Australia are examined to explore the ways in which frontiers between British and antipodean cultures were negotiated in colonial textuality The role of the Treaty of Waitangi in New Zealand society is possibly the most important and controversial issue facing modern New Zealanders The book also presents valuable insights into sexual politics Aboriginal sovereignty economics of Torres Strait maritime and nomadism Soundings, 1964 Resourceful Reading Katherine Bode, Professor Robert Dixon, 2010-01-11 This collection provides the first comprehensive account of eResearch and the new empiricism as they are transforming the field of Australian literary studies in the twenty first century My Road of Life Sabir Rustamkhanli, 2013-04 My Road of Life is his last work written during the Soviet rule This book treasures love love of everyone love to motherland history culture The book speaks out for the whole Azerbaijani people expressing its benevolent nature and good will The 90s of the last century marked Azerbaijan's history with independence from the Soviet regime and greatly contributed to introduce My Road of Life as one of the cult books of those times spreading thoughts and spirit of liberty independence nation's self governance Fighters for independence used to come to The Liberty Square in Baku with this book in their hands to demand the end of the authoritarian Soviet dominance The book encouraged the young generation of those times to rise and wage the just struggle for future and signaled the complete destruction of the humiliating Soviet dictatorship Today My Road of Life is a versed relic echoing the ardent freedom loving spirit of the Azerbaijani people on their long way to hard fought victory Between Two Worlds Cemal Kafadar, 1995-05-08 Cemal Kafadar offers a much more subtle and complex interpretation of the early Ottoman period than that provided by other historians His careful analysis of medieval as well as modern historiography from the perspective of a cultural historian demonstrates how ethnic tribal linguistic religious and political affiliations were all at play in the struggle for power in Anatolia and the Balkans during the late Middle Ages This highly original look at the rise of the Ottoman empire the longest lived political entity in human history shows the transformation of a tiny frontier enterprise into a centralized imperial state that saw itself as both leader of the world s Muslims and heir to the Eastern Roman Empire
