Doughty,2015-03-14 Folktales and fairy tales are living stories

as part of the oral tradition they change and evolve as they are retold from generation to generation In the last thirty years however revision has become an art form of its own with tales intentionally revised to achieve humorous effect send political messages add different cultural or regional elements try out new narrative voices and more These revisions take all forms from short stories to novel length narratives to poems plays musicals films and advertisements The resulting tales paint the tales from myriad perspectives using the broad palette of human creativity This study examines folktale revisions from many angles drawing on examples primarily from revisions of Western European traditional tales such as those of the Grimm Brothers and Charles Perrault Also discussed are new folktales that combine traditional storylines with commentary on modern life The conclusion considers how revisionists poke fun at and struggle to understand stories that sometimes made little sense to start with Creating Connections in Teaching and Learning Lindy Abawi,Joan Conway,Robyn

Henderson,2011-12-01 This book explores the wide range of contexts in which research into creating connections in learning and teaching may take place Creating connections can encompass making links crossing divides forming relationships building frameworks and generating new knowledge The cognitive cultural social emotional and or physical aspects of understanding meaning making motivating acting researching and evaluating are explored as constituent forms of creativity in relation to such connections From this exploration the authors identify varied connective contexts and means which include the learner the educator the organisation and the relevant community The crossing of divides forming learner educator relationships bringing together diverse groups of learners establishing networks and partnerships among educators and establishing links between organisations and communities are all considered as connections which can be created by and within the learning and teaching dynamic By examining the factors which help to facilitate and or restrict the possibilities for creating connections in educational contexts implications for and outcomes of learning and or teaching arise from the connections created The final chapter of this book will explicate the realisations that have emerged for educators and researchers working to create connections These offer suggestions for future directions and enunciate what and how connections might contribute to both educational institutions and the broader society Francine Prince's New Diet for Life Cookbook Francine Prince,2000-11 There has been a significant shift in American dietary trends Cholesterol sugar bad fats and salt are out Fiber complex carbohydrates and good fats are in As we begin a new millennium Americans are more conscious of their eating habits than ever before Now from the author of the best selling Dieter s Gourmet Cookbook comes FRANCINE PRINCE S NEW DIET FOR LIFE COOKBOOK a timeless healthful gourmet cuisine for everyone The New Diet For Life Cookbook is addressed not to Americans on a restricted diet but to healthy Americans who want to stay healthy The New Diet for Life Cookbook cuts down on ingredients that may be harmful to one s health and steps up ingredients that are likely to be beneficial In supermarket terms this means carrying home more fruits and vegetables whole grain products lean meat chicken and fish particularly cold water fish Reclaiming Early Childhood Literacies Richard J Meyer,Kathryn F.

Whitmore,2016-09-01 At a time when literacy has become more of a political issue than a research or pedagogical one this volume refocuses attention on work with young children that places them at the center of their literacy worlds Drawing on robust and growing knowledge which is often marginalized because of political and legislative forces it explores young children s literacies as inclusive redefined and broadened encompassing technologies the arts multiple modalities and teaching and learning for democracy cultural sustainability and social justice Highlighted themes include children s rights to grow through playful engagements with multiple literacies to interrogate their worlds adults who expand and inspire children s consciousness and awareness of others and the world around them the centrality of meaning making in all aspects of language and literacy development a deep respect for diversities including languages cultures sexual orientation socioeconomic status and more and an expansive understanding of the nature of texts
