Post Apocalyptic Story Spotlight:

The Wild Ones (Post Apocalyptic Fiction) Lauren Lee, 2018-12-21 It's 2120 and organized society no longer exists. There's no government, religion, or an awful lot of hope left in the world. The water is contaminated and strips those infected of their senses until they become nothing but a ravenous shell of a human. Murderous gangs roam the land, cannibals prey on the weak, and those still alive struggle to stay alive. Lexa is 16 years old, and her most prized possession is a dagger her father left to her before he and her mother disappeared in search of fresh water. Now Lexa and her little sister live in a camp where all seems well until their water source is compromised. Can Lexa save her camp from a deadly disaster? Or will she have to bury the people who helped raise her? Lexa learns all too quickly about life, death, and the pursuit of survival. A Taste of Revenge \(Post Apocalyptic Fiction\) Lauren Lee, 2019-05-03 Sometimes all you need is a taste. In the epic conclusion of the Tainted Life Series, Lexa must risk everything to save herself and those she loves most. When she learns a shocking truth about her family, everything she once knew comes crashing down. Lexa once thought the apocalypse was her greatest obstacle, but it turns out man is much more lethal. Can Lexa finally put the darkness behind her? Or will she succumb to the depths of the end of the world?

Tracing the (Post)Apartheid Novel beyond 2000 Danyela Dimakatso Demir, Olivier Moreillon, 2023-12-01 This anthology comprises of interviews with contemporary South African authors offering vignettes of their lives and summaries of their works. In curating this book, Danyela Demir and Olivier Moreillon step beyond pure literary theory and analysis. They welcome the authors to speak and assess the literary panorama in which they live and co-create. However, Demir and Moreillon also trace concepts and terms that describe the current South African literature, such as post-transitional literature and literature beyond 2000. By adopting a world literary approach to post-apartheid literature, this book contributes to debates on contemporary South African writing. In addition, Tracing the Post Apartheid Novel Beyond 2000 seeks to raise awareness of the imbalance in both critical and public attention between literary big names such as André P. Brink, J. M. Coetzee, Nadine Gordimer, and Zakes Mda, who are popular worldwide, and the younger and newer generation of South African writers who go largely unnoticed. Print edition not for sale in Sub-Saharan Africa.

Apocalyptic Visions in 21st Century Films Elizabeth A. Ford, Deborah C. Mitchell, 2018-07-11 The apocalypse on the big screen has expanded beyond the familiar end-of-the-world movies. Romantic comedies, teen adventures, and even children's films frequently feature apocalyptic imagery: disintegrating cities, extreme weather events, extinctions, rogue military forces, epidemics, zombie armies, and worlds colliding. Using sophisticated CGI effects, filmmakers are depicting the end of the world ever more stunningly. The authors explore the phenomenon of the cinematic apocalypse and its origins in both our anxieties and our real-world events, and they identify some flashes of hope in the desolate landscape. Contemporary American Fiction in the European Classroom Laurence W. Mazzeno, Sue Norton, 2022-04-06 This book offers insight into the ways students enrolled in European classrooms in higher education come to understand American experience through its literary fiction, which for decades has been a key component of English department offerings and American Studies curricula across the continent and in Great Britain and Ireland The essays provide an understanding of how post World War II American writers some already elevated to canonical status and some not are represented in European university classrooms and why they have been chosen for inclusion in coursework The book will be of interest to scholars and teachers of American literature and American studies and to students in American literature and American studies courses Mutation (Wildfire Chronicles Vol. 4)
