Readers Choice Booktube Recommendations:

Social Reading Cultures on BookTube, Bookstagram, and BookTok Bronwyn Reddan, Leonie Rutherford, Amy Schoonens, Michael Dezuanni, 2024-04-30 This book examines the reading cultures developed by communities of readers and book lovers on BookTube Bookstagram and BookTok as an increasingly important influence on contemporary book and literary culture It explores how the affordances of social media platforms invite readers to participate in social reading communities and engage in creative and curatorial practices that express their identity as readers and book lovers The interdisciplinary team of authors argue that by creating new opportunities for readers to engage in social reading practices bookish social media has elevated the agency and visibility of readers and book consumers within literary culture It has also reshaped the cultural and economic dynamics of book recommendations by creating a space in which different actors are able to form an identity as mediators of reading culture Concise and accessible this introduction to an increasingly central set of literary practices is essential reading for students and scholars of literature sociology media and cultural studies as well as teachers and professionals in the book and library industries The Library Screen Scene Renee Hobbs, Liz Deslauriers, Pam Steager, 2019 In the past two decades several U S states have explored ways to mainstream media literacy in school curriculum However one of the best and most accessible places to learn this necessary skill has not been the traditional classroom but rather the library In an increasing number of school public and academic libraries shared media experiences such as film screening learning to computer animate and video editing promote community and a sense of civic engagement The Library Screen Scene reveals five core practices used by librarians who work with film and media viewing creating learning collecting and connecting With examples from more than 170 libraries throughout the United States the book shows how film and media literacy education programs library services and media collections teach patrons to critically analyze moving image media uniting generations cultures and communities in the process Digital Textualities and Spaces in ELT Theresa Summer, Ralf Gießler, 2025-03-31 The digital world opens up a vast number of spaces such as immersive virtual reality digital book corners and discourses marked by hashtags In this volume we argue that digital spaces and textualities should play a more central role in English language teaching and learning ELT emphasising their multimodal and interactive nature as a means of engaging with different layers of meaning in the target language Digital spaces function as contact zones where readers and writers communicate negotiate experiences and shape collective identities Within these spaces digital textualities create opportunities for competence development across various language related domains fostering a critical engagement with texts Bringing together theoretical insights conceptual developments and case studies this volume explores the potential of digital spaces and textualities for ELT while addressing their practical implications

Reading Bestsellers Danielle Fuller, DeNel Rehberg Sedo, 2023-04-27 Readers are essential agents in the production of bestsellers but bestsellers are not essential to readers leisure pursuits The starting point in this Element is readers opinions about and their uses of bestselling fiction in English Readers relationships with bestsellers bring into view their practices of book selection and their navigation of book recommendation culture Based on three years of original research 2019 2021 including a quantitative survey with readers interviews with social media influencers and qualitative work with international Gen Z readers in a private Instagram chat space the authors highlight three core actions contemporary multimodal readers make choosing connecting and responding in a transmedia era where on and offline media practices co exist The contemporary multimodal reader or the MMR3 they argue illustrates the pervasiveness of recommendation culture reliance on trusted others and an ethic of responsiveness
