Private When the Hurt Won't Heal Craig K. Svensson, 2024-09-23 Craig K Svensson helps those living with a chronic illness examine its effect on their spiritual life and find hope amid their suffering From Sin to Disease Jonathan K. Okinaga, 2022-09-23 Since Benjamin Rush first introduced the disease of wills as the cause of alcoholism a steady and slow infiltration of the disease model has infected how the church treats those who struggle with addictions The first organization that truly sought to remove the soul care of addicts from the church was Alcoholics Anonymous AA through their bestselling The Big Book of AA and the introduction of the 12 Steps AA's influence on how the church confronts addiction still reverberates today with many of the ministries that address addiction firmly rooted in what can be found in AA literature Addictions were once viewed as an issue caused by sin and best addressed through faith and prayer Currently addiction is seen through the lens of disease The ramifications are consequential as more church members are struggling with addictions than ever before Tracing the progression of addiction from sin to disease will reveal that the SBC and its churches have been negligent in understanding the underlying foundations of AA and the influence that the medicalization of substance abuse has had on how churches approach what should be classified as a sin issue A Theology of Biblical Counseling Heath Lambert, 2016-04-05 A landmark textbook for Christian counselors that unpacks the core theological convictions behind sound counseling and outlines practical wisdom for counseling today Since the beginning of the biblical counseling movement in 1970 biblical counselors have argued that counseling is a ministry of the Word just like preaching or missions As a ministry counseling must be defined according to sound biblical theology rather than secular principles of psychology For over four decades biblical theology has been at the core of the biblical counseling movement Leaders in biblical counseling have emphasized a commitment to teaching doctrine in their counseling courses out of the conviction that good theology leads to good counseling and bad theology leads to bad counseling A Theology of Biblical Counseling is an ideal resource for use in training biblical counselors at colleges seminaries and training institutes In each chapter doctrine comes to life in real ministry to real people dramatically demonstrating how theology intersects with the lives of actual counselees
