The Africana World Mammo Muchie, Sanya Osha, 2012-05-22 It is 127 years since the Scramble for Africa divided up the continent imposing borders that have led to conflict rather than peace and stability It is 100 years since the African National Congress ANC was founded as the first African liberation movement with pan African roots It is nearly 50 years since the Organization of African Unity OAU was founded in May 1963 and ten years since the African Union AU was born with a vision that seeks the actualisation of human dignity development and prosperity for the entire African people anchored on a vision of an integrated prosperous and peaceful Africa driven and managed by its own citizens and representing a dynamic force in the international arena The achievement of the AU vision is predicated on colonialism being dead However it has actually been replaced by neocolonialism which requires extra vigilance from Africa and its diaspora in order for the unity and renaissance dreamed of to become a reality The chapters in Africana World From Fragmentation to Unity and Renaissance address colonial and postcolonial African realities with a view to present a holistic and transcontinental appraisal of questions issues and challenges that confront the continent Contributors are drawn from different parts of the world Africa Europe and the Americas and it is this eclectic range of scholarly views that lends a rich historicity to the meaning of Africanity The book contains multidisciplinary and transdisciplinary engagements with Africa's rich cultural heritage its lingering contemporary challenges its multifaceted systems of knowledge and its future in the exciting context of the twenty first century Africana World From Fragmentation to Unity and Renaissance is put together in order to help develop the study and knowledge of African liberation across the continent and the diaspora This first volume launches a new book series following the Scramble for Africa conferences held every May to commemorate the founding of the OAU which will be published annually to support the scholarly study of African unity and renaissance in order to replace the lingering imagery of colonialism in Africa with a fully liberated African consciousness

China's Economic Development Lee Pei May, 2024-06-21 Through a rigorous examination of China's rise Lee addresses an important question Did China catch up Or more specifically can growth be automatically translated to catching up with the advanced industrialised countries or has it only allowed limited progress if any to be made To answer these queries and the broader question of the possibility of the Global South converging with the Global North four development theories are utilised with competing explanations to uncover the complexity and multifaceted development of China This includes whether China really has a unique developmental model to offer Positioning China within the global economy this book traces its developmental progress over time as well as its progress relative to other countries To understand whether the Chinese political economy is socialist or not Lee moves away from the orthodox definition of socialism and instead examines the official narrative of Socialism with Chinese Characteristics Lastly this book argues that though China is catching up challenges that could potentially block China's progress for a full catch up are to be anticipated A useful resource for students and scholars in the fields of international relations international political economy Chinese studies and development studies Chinese
