Prophecy in Early Christianity and the Ancient Mediterranean World David Edward Aune, 1983 Aune's comprehensive study of early Christian prophecy includes a review of its antecedents Greco Roman oracles ancient Israelite prophecy prophecy in early Judaism a discussion of Jesus as prophet and analyses of Christian prophetic speeches from Paul to the middle of the second century A D Christian Prophecy Niels Christian Hvidt, 2007-04-19 Throughout the Hebrew Bible God guides and saves his people through the words of his prophets When the prophets are silenced the people easily lose their way What happened after the incarnation death and resurrection of Christ Did God fall silent The dominant position in Christian theology is that prophecy did indeed cease at some point in the past if not with the Old Testament prophets then with John the Baptist with Jesus with the last apostle or with the closure of the canon of the New Testament Nevertheless throughout the history of Christianity there have always been acclaimed saints and mystics most of them women who displayed prophetic traits In recent years the charismatic revival in both Protestant and Catholic circles has once again raised the question of the place and function of prophecy in Christianity Scholarly theological attitudes toward Christian prophecy range from modest recognition to contempt Mainstream systematic theology both Protestant and Catholic has mostly marginalized or ignored the gift of prophecy In this book however Niels Christian Hvidt argues that prophecy has persisted in Christianity as an inherent and continuous feature in the life of the church. Prophecy never died, he argues, but rather proved its dynamism by mutating to meet new historical conditions. He presents a comprehensive history of prophecy from ancient Israel to the present and closely examines the development of the theological discourse that surrounds it. Throughout, though, there is always an awareness of the critical discernment required when evaluating the charisma of prophecy. The debate about prophecy Hvidt shows leads to some profound insights about the very nature of Christianity and the church. For example, some have argued that Christianity is a perfect state and that all that is required for salvation is acceptance of its doctrines. Others have emphasized how God continues to intervene and guide his people onto the right path as the full implementation of God's salvation in Christ is still far away. This is the position that Hvidt forcefully and persuasively defends and develops in this ambitious and important work.

Heinrich Bullinger on Prophecy and the Prophetic Office (1523-1538) Daniël Timmerman, 2015-02-18

It has often been noted that the Protestant Reformation of the early sixteenth century witnessed a revived interest in the scriptural notions of prophets and prophecy. Drawing from both late medieval apocalyptic expectations of the immanent end of the world and from a humanist revival of biblical studies, the prophet appeared to many as a suitable role model for the Protestant preacher. A prominent proponent of this prophetic model was the Swiss theologian and church leader Heinrich Bullinger (1504-1575). This study by Daniël Timmerman presents the first in-depth investigation of Bullinger's concept of prophecy and his understanding of the prophetic office. It also engages with the history of the Zurich Institute for the Study of the Scriptures, which has become widely known as the Prophezei.

The Prophecies of Daniel and the Apocalypse of St. John Isaac Newton, 2018-10-05

When Manasse set up a carved image in the house of the Lord and built altars in the two courts of the house to all the host of Heaven and used incantments and witchcraft and familiar spirits and for his great wickedness was invaded by the army of Asserhadon King of Assyria and carried captive to Babylon the book of the Law was lost till the eighteenth year of his grandson Josiah. Then Hilkiyah the High Priest upon repairing the Temple found it there and the King lamented that their fathers had not done after the words of the book and commanded that it should be read to the people and caused the people to renew the holy covenant with God. This is the book of the Law now extant.
