Sorolla The Masterworks:

Sorolla: The Masterworks Blanca Pons-Sorolla, 2012-10-02 A new survey of the best works by the elusive and spectacular Spanish Impressionist Joaquín Sorolla. Often compared to his contemporary the American artist John Singer Sargent, Joaquín Sorolla (1863-1923) was a master draftsman and painter of landscapes, formal portraits and monumental, historically themed canvases. Highly influenced by French Impressionism, the Valencian artist was a master plein air painter known for his luminous seaside scenes of frolicking youths and for vivid depictions of Spanish rural life and its pleasures and customs. This beautifully designed and produced volume brings together one hundred of Sorolla's major paintings selected by his great granddaughter Blanca Pons-Sorolla, the foremost authority on the artist. Benefiting from close proximity to the artist and his personal archives, she presents an in-depth essay that explores Sorolla's life, work and remarkable international legacy. With virtually all of the artist's previous publications now out of print, this much anticipated volume is an important addition to the literature on this great Spanish master. Joaquín Sorolla Nudes Cristina Berna, Eric Thomsen, 2023-08-21 Joaquín Sorolla (born in Valencia 1863, died in Cercedilla 1923) is one of the most successful Spanish painters ever. He was a genius in capturing the essence of the scene he was painting. Some of the first nudes by Sorolla were gifted to his future father-in-law, the photographer Antonio García, and mother-in-law Clotilde del Castillo. When Sorolla won a stipend to study in Rome, nudes were obligatory, but his skills developed, being able to convey expressions that the jury back in Valencia found morally improper. Sorolla painted two magnificent nudes of his wife, a beautiful tribute to their love. Joaquín Sorolla, however, is especially famous for his nudes of happy children and youth on the beach under the dazzling Valencian sun. Please note: this book is not a photo-erotic work but part of a bibliography about the painter. Joaquín Sorolla Portraits 2 Cristina Berna, Eric Thomsen, 2024-08-02 Joaquín Sorolla (born in Valencia 1863, died in Cercedilla 1923) is one of the most successful Spanish painters ever. He was a genius in capturing the essence of the scene he was painting. In Joaquín Sorolla Portraits 2 (1900-1910), Sorolla becomes a celebrated portrait painter. Following the success of his one-man exhibitions in France (1906) to a lesser degree in Germany (1907) and England (1908), but especially the USA (1909), portrait commissions flooded in. But even before Paris, Sorolla produced a large number of portraits. Many of his most important sitters were male, but Sorolla did exquisite female portraits as well. Among his most successful portraits were those of female sitters whom he invariably imbued with an elegance and beauty that rank them alongside the portraits of his contemporaries Giovanni Boldini, Anders Zorn and John Singer Sargent. Sorolla: Painted Gardens, 2019-04-23 Valencian master Sorolla's Impressionist paintings depict the most beautiful gardens and architecture in Spain. Like Claude Monet's celebrated plein air landscapes at Giverny, the series collected in this book represents among the best-loved examples of Joaquín Sorolla's (1863-1923) work and a window into the Spanish painter's quest to capture the essence of a garden. Described by Monet as the master of light, Sorolla and his landscapes, formal portraits and historically themed canvases drew comparisons to contemporary American painter John

Singer Sargent Sorolla had achieved renown on both sides of the Atlantic for grand scenes of Spanish life when he began a personal series of garden works presented completely for the first time in this publication Painted at the palaces of La Granja and the Alcázar in Seville the Alhambra and Generalife in Granada and at the painter's home in Madrid these Impressionist works allowed Sorolla to apply his signature loose brushwork and training as a photographer's lighting assistant to gardens and the sculptures architecture and sitters that frame and animate them Sorolla depicted reflections in fountains and pools the sunlight dappling his glamorous sitters sprays of orange blossoms and shaded blue and white tile as he endeavored to render the radiant peace of a summer afternoon
