The Mammoth Book of Paranormal Romance: Volumes 1 and 2 Trisha Telep, 2012-08-30 Paranormal romance was never going to be content with just vampires and werewolves and the fantastic stories within this collection lay claim to much much more Here you will find well loved bestselling authors writing under pseudonyms fresh stars and steadfast favourites together offering an assorted feast of mythical beasts magical creatures of all shapes and sizes heart stoppingly handsome ghosts angels and mortals with extra sensitive sensory perception play out the themes of extraordinary desires If love transcends all boundaries then paranormal romance is its logical conclusion From the biggest names around here are 41 tales to take you to another time and place Neo-Victorian Humour , 2017-06-06 This volume highlights humour s crucial role in shaping historical re visions of the long nineteenth century through modes ranging from subtle irony camp excess ribald farce and aesthetic parody to blackly comic narrative games It analyses neo Victorian humour s politicisation its ideological functions and ethical implications across varied media including fiction drama film webcomics and fashion Contemporary humour maps the assumed distance between postmodernity and its targeted nineteenth century referents only to repeatedly collapse the same in a seemingly self defeating nihilistic project This collection explores how neo Victorian humour generates empathy and effective socio political critique dispensing symbolic justice but also risks recycling the past's invidious ideologies under the politically correct guise of comic debunking even to the point of negating laughter itself This rich and innovative collection invites us to reflect on the complex and various deployments of humour in neo Victorian texts where its consumers may wish at times that they could swallow back the laughter a scene or event provokes It covers a range of approaches to humour utilised by neo Victorian writers dramatists graphic novelists and filmmakers including the deliberately and pompously unfunny the traumatic the absurd the ribald and the frankly distasteful producing a richly satisfying anthology of innovative readings of canonical neo Victorian texts as well as those which are potential generic outliers The collection explores what is funny in the neo Victorian and who we are laughing at the Victorians as we like to imagine them or ourselves in ways we rarely acknowledge This is a celebration of the parodic playfulness of a wide range of texts from fiction to fashion whilst offering a trenchant critique of the politics of postmodern laughter that will appeal to those working in adaptation studies gender and queer studies as well as literary and cultural studies more generally Prof Imelda Whelehan University of Tasmania Australia

Tracking The Tempest Nicole Peeler,2010-08-05 Jane True always knew she wasn't quite normal but she never expected to discover she had a supernatural heritage Now she's struggling to hone her new found powers as a halfling including her affinity over water Luckily her steamy relationship with vampire Ryu helps to keep her mind off things somewhat But Jane's life won't get simpler any time soon While visiting Ryu in Boston she becomes entangled in an investigation involving a spree of gruesome killings All evidence points towards a being of tremendous power who much to Jane's surprise may just turn out to be another halfling
