The Cinema Of Todd Haynes All That Heaven Allows Directors Cuts:

The Cinema of Todd Haynes James Morrison, 2007 Todd Haynes has emerged from the trenches of independent American film in the 1990s to become one of the twenty first century s most audacious filmmakers In a series of smart informative essays this book traces his career from its roots in New Queer Cinema to the Oscar nominated Far from Heaven 2002 Along the way it covers such landmark films as Poison 1991 Safe 1995 and Velvet Goldmine 1998 Contributors look at these films from a variety of angles including his debts to the avant garde and such noted precursors as Rainer Werner Fassbinder his adventurous uses of melodrama and his incisive portrayals of contemporary life

The Cinema of Michael Haneke Ben McCann, David Sorfa, 2012-05-29 Michael Haneke is one of the most important directors working in Europe today with films such as Funny Games 1997 Code Unknown 2000 and Hidden 2005 interrogating modern ethical dilemmas with forensic clarity and merciless insight Haneke s films frequently implicate both the protagonists and the audience in the making of their misfortunes yet even in the barren nihilism of The Seventh Continent 1989 and Time of the Wolf 2003 a dark strain of optimism emerges releasing each from its terrible and inescapable guilt It is this contingent and unlikely possibility that we find in Haneke s cinema a utopian Europe This collection celebrates explicates and sometimes challenges the worldview of Haneke s films It examines the director s central themes and preoccupations bourgeois alienation modes and critiques of spectatorship the role of the media and analyzes otherwise marginalized aspects of his work such as the function of performance and stardom early Austrian television productions the romanticism of The Piano Teacher 2001 and the 2007 shot for shot remake of Funny Games

The Cinema of Terrence Malick Hannah Patterson, 2007 This updated book continues its explorations of identity place and existence in his films with three new essays by Adrian Martin Mark Cousins and James Morrison on his latest film The New World 2005 as well as analysis of Badlands 1973 Days of Heaven 1978 and The Thin Red Line 1998

The Cinema of Béla Tarr András B. Kovács, 2013-05-21 The Cinema of Béla Tarr is a critical analysis of the work of Hungary s most prominent and internationally best known film director written by a scholar who has followed Béla Tarr s career through a close personal and professional relationship for more than twenty five years András B. Kovács traces the development of Tarr s themes characters and style showing that almost all of his major stylistic and narrative innovations were already present in his early films and that through a conscious and meticulous recombination of and experimentation with these elements Tarr arrived at his unique style The significance of these films is that beyond their aesthetic and historical value they provide the most powerful vision of an entire region and its historical situation Tarr s films express in their universalistic language the shared feelings of millions of Eastern Europeans

The Cinema of Steven Soderbergh Andrew deWaard, R. Colin Tait, 2013-05-07 The industry s only director cinematographer screenwriter producer actor editor Steven Soderbergh is contemporary Hollywood s most innovative and prolific filmmaker A Palme d or and Academy Award winner Soderbergh has directed nearly thirty films including political provocations digital experiments esoteric documentaries global blockbusters and a series of atypical genre films This volume considers its slippery subject from several perspectives analyzing Soderbergh as an expressive auteur of art cinema and genre fare as a politically motivated guerrilla filmmaker and as a Hollywood insider Combining a detective's approach to investigating the truth with a criminal's alternative value system Soderbergh's films tackle social justice in a corporate world embodying dozens of cinematic trends and forms advanced in the past twenty five years His career demonstrates the richness of contemporary American cinema and this study gives his complex oeuvre the in depth analysis it deserves The Cinema of Richard Linklater Rob Stone,2013-05-01 From Slacker 1991 to The School of Rock 2003 from Before Sunrise 1995 to Before Sunset 2004 from the walking and talking of his no low budget American independent films to conversing with the philosophical traditions of the European art house Richard Linklater's films are some of the most critical political and spiritual achievements of contemporary world cinema Examinations of Linklater's collaborative working practices and deployment of rotoscoping and innovative distribution strategies all feature in this book which aspires to walk and talk with the filmmaker and his films Informed by a series of original interviews with the artist in both his hometown and frequent film location of Austin Texas this study of the director who made Dazed and Confused 1993 A Scanner Darkly 2006 and Bernie 2011 explores the theoretical practical contextual and metaphysical elements of these works along with his documentaries and side projects and finds fanciful lives and lucid dreams have as much to do with his work as generally alternative notions of America contemporary society cinema and time The Cinema of Steven Spielberg Nigel Morris,2007 Detailed textual analysis of films from Spielberg's entire career reveal that alongside conventional commercial appeal his movies function as a self reflexive they invite divergent readings and self conscious spectatorship which contradict assumptions about their ideological tendencies The Cinema of Terry Gilliam Jeff Birkenstein,Anna Froula,Karen Randell,2013-04-23 Terry Gilliam has been making movies for more than forty years and this volume analyzes a selection of his thrilling directorial work from his early films with Monty Python to The Imaginarium of Doctor Parnassus 2009 The frenetic genius auteur and social critic continues to create indelible images on screen if that is he can get funding for his next project Featuring eleven original essays from an international group of scholars this collection argues that when Gilliam makes a movie he goes to war against Hollywood caution and convention against American hyper consumerism and imperial militarism against narrative vapidty and spoon fed mediocrity and against the brutalizing notion and cruel vision of the American Dream The Cinema of Werner Herzog Brad Prager,2007 More than any other director Werner Herzog is renowned for pushing the boundaries of conventional cinema especially those between the fictional and the factual the fantastic and the real Drawing on over 35 films this book explores his continuing search for what he has described as the ecstatic truth The Cinema of Aki Kaurismäki Andrew Nestingen,2013-06-25 Aki Kaurismäki is an enigma an eminent auteur who claims his films are a joke Since 1983 Kaurismäki has produced classically styled films filled with cinephilic references to film history He has earned an international art house audience and many prizes influencing such directors as Jim Jarmusch Quentin Tarantino and Wes Anderson Yet Kaurismäki is often depicted as the loneliest most nostalgic of Finns except when he promotes his films makes political statements and runs his many businesses He is also depicted as a bohemian known for outlandish actions and statements The Cinema of Aki Kaurismäki is the first comprehensive English language study of this eccentric director Drawing on revisionist approaches to film authorship the text links the filmmaker and his films to the stories and issues animating film aesthetics and history nostalgia late modernity politics commerce film festivals and national cinema
