Reading the Christian Spiritual Classics Jamin Goggin, Kyle

Strobel, 2013-06-05 This new collection of essays edited by Kyle Strobel and Jamin Goggin offers an evangelical hermeneutic for reading the Christian spiritual classics Addressing the why what and how of reading these texts these essays challenge us to find our own questions deepened by the church's long history of spiritual reflection

Saints As They Really Are Michael Plekon, 2012-05-15 In his new book Saints As They Really Are priest and scholar Michael Plekon traces the spiritual journeys of several American Christians using their memoirs and other writings These saints in the making show all their doubts and imperfections as they reflect on their search for God and their efforts to lead holy lives They are gifted yet ordinary women and men trying to follow Christ within their flawed and broken humanity saints as they really are as Dorothy Day put it Saints As They Really Are is the third book in Plekon's critically acclaimed series on saints and holiness in our time He draws on the autobiographical work of Dorothy Day Peter Berger Thomas Merton Kathleen Norris and Barbara Brown Taylor among others as well as from his own experiences as a Carmelite seminarian and brother Plekon shares the power of these individuals' stories as they unfold The book offers a strong argument that our failings and weaknesses are not disqualifications to holiness Plekon further confronts the institutional church and its relationship to individuals seeking God focusing on some of the challenges to this search the destructive potential of religion and religious institutions as well as our personal tendencies to extremism overwork pious obsessions and legalism But he also underscores the healing qualities of faith and the spiritual life Plekon's insights will help readers better understand their own spiritual pilgrimages as they learn how others have dealt with the trials and joys of their path to everyday holiness

Islam, Christianity and the Mystic

Journey Ian Richard Netton, 2011-04-30 This distinctive comparison of Islamic and Christian mysticism focuses on the mystic journey in the two faith traditions the journey which every believer must make and which leads to the Divine The author clears away misconceptions and highlights similarities and differences in the thought and lives of six key mystics Al Kalabadhi Al Daylami Al Qushayri Julian of Norwich Thomas a Kempis and Teresa of Avila He considers the ways of Perfection on the Mystic Path and asks in what ways these authors have embarked on the mystic journey He looks at the themes they have in common as well as their differences and asks how they envisage the concept of union with the Deity Readers will gain a broad understanding of the interdisciplinary and intertextual nature of the subject as well as its diverse intellectual and historical contexts

In Context: Teresa of Ávila, John of the Cross, and Their World Mark O'Keefe

OSB, 2020-03-04 St Teresa of Avila and St John of the Cross are among the greatest teachers of prayer in the Christian tradition For nearly five centuries their writings on the spiritual life have guided those seeking greater union with God Beyond the written corpus of these saints the lived experiences of these reformers of the Carmelite Order also draws fascination Living in sixteenth century Spain among kings prelates explorers inquisitors and reformers these two saints were formed and sanctified by the context and circumstances of their historical time and place In Context Teresa of vila John of the Cross and Their World explores the social cultural intellectual and religious themes that prevailed during the time in which St Teresa of vila and St John of the Cross lived and breathed This book is not only a thematic overview but also visits particular situations in the lives of these saints the events that shaped their writings their lives and the Carmelite Reform they initiated Offering for the first time in English a comprehensive contextual overview of the Carmelite reformers Father O Keefe draws upon pivotal scholarly sources not available to many beginner to intermediate students of spirituality The extensive bibliographies point readers toward the next steps in diving deeper into Carmelite studies Also including A fully linked comprehensive index 16 pages of color photos This book is an excellent resource for any earnest student of St Teresa of vila and St John of the Cross

Monastic Perspectives on Temporality Riitta Hujanen,2023-08-07 In this book Riitta Hujanen explores temporality in the context of Catholic enclosed contemplative traditions It investigates based on literature and other sources what enclosed contemplatives might say about temporality through their monastic journeys What makes a young person decide to dedicate their life inside a cloister Do contemplatives have a preference for eternity over temporal time How does the enclosed contemplative life impact one s concept of time How is time perceived towards the end of one s monastic journey What is seen when looking back to the years in the enclosed contemplative life What is experienced at the hour of death The answers to these questions illustrate a paradoxical dynamic in monastic journeys that cover a broad historical scope from the earliest monastic writers to contemporary sources

The Carmelite Tradition Steven Payne,2011-06-01 Eight hundred years ago Albert of Jerusalem gave the hermit penitents of Mount Carmel a way of life to follow Since then this rule has inspired and formed mystics and scholars men and women lay and ordained to seek the living God In The Carmelite Tradition Steven Payne OCD brings together representative voices to demonstrate the richness and depth of Carmelite spirituality As he writes Carmelite spirituality seeks nothing more nor less than to stand before the face of the living God and prophesy with Elijah to hear the word of God and keep it with Mary to grow in friendship with God through unceasing prayer with Teresa to become by participation what Christ is by nature as John of the Cross puts it and thereby to be made like Th r se of Lisieux into instruments of God s transforming merciful love in the church and society The lives and writings in The Carmelite Tradition invite readers to stand with these holy men and women and seek God in the hermitage of the heart Steven Payne OCD of the Washington Province of Discalced Carmelite Friars is a member of the Carmelite Friars formation team at the Monastery of St John of the Cross near Nairobi Kenya and director of the Institute of Spirituality and Religious Formation ISRF at Tangaza College a constituent college of the Catholic University of Eastern Africa CUEA in Nairobi He is the past editor of ICS Publications and of Spiritual Life magazine and the author of several works in philosophy of religion theology and Carmelite spirituality He is a member of the Carmelite Forum and of the Carmelite Institute in Washington DC of which he is a past president

Make Your Home in My Love Catherine Skinner

Powell,2019-11-13 Are you living as God's burning bush without being consumed Or might you be headed toward burnout We will rediscover the blessing of this mutual love relationship with God overflowing to others as God's sheer gift Could it be that the first and greatest commandment is for our greatest joy and not some mysterious burden to fulfill One metaphor is the vine and the branches from John 15 1-11 Jesus is the vine and we are the branches apart from the vine the branch can do nothing God wants to be our supply our source in an intimate encounter of the finite with the infinite God was the source for these heroes of faith Augustine of Hippo Bernard of Clairvaux Catherine of Siena Ignatius of Loyola John Calvin and Teresa of Avila Using a descriptive process called the Classic Three Ways including the purgative letting go illuminative seeing with the heart and unitive intimacy dating back to around 500 CE we now add a fourth way the unitive active the dance From that dance of mutual love ministry overflows We do it together it is participatory humankind following God's lead It's not a formula It's our living God Carmelite Prayer Keith J. Egan,2003 Thoroughly contemporary and pragmatic this collection of essays provides a clear picture of Carmelite teaching while encouraging a journey of discovery and faith From Monks to Missionaries Nicki Verploegen,2013-02-01 Have you ever wondered what the difference between the Franciscans and Jesuits is Have you been curious about how a monk's life differs from a missionary's and about the origins of these traditions This book explores how four distinct types of spirituality evolved in Christianity over the centuries as a response to various needs in different eras These all became schools of spiritual formation This book introduces monasticism mendicancy apostolic ministry and missionary life as umbrella categories out of which many religious communities formed It explores thirteen of these different communities introducing you to the founders and the original fire that moved each of them to create something new This book provides historical background and explores the rich legacy of the founders of each of these communities It vibrantly shows how the story of the church as a whole has been enriched and blessed by these feisty controversial and saintly sages whose radical choice to follow the Spirit led them into new terrain and resulted in the emergence of a diversity of forms of spiritual lifestyles From within this treasure house of Christian riches we can draw support and inspiration to contribute our own stories and pass on this legacy to those who come after
