The Sacred Books of China: The writings of Kwang-Zze, books 18-33. The thai-shang tractate of actions and their retributions ,1891 The Sacred Books of China: The writings of Kwang-tze, books XVIII-XXXIII : The Thâi-shang, tractate of actions and their retributions ; Appendixes I-VIII ,1891 The Sacred Books of China: The writings of Kwang-Zze [suite]. The Thâi-Shang tractate of actions and their retributions ,1891 The Sacred Books of China ,1891 Landscapes of Accumulation Llerena Guiu Searle, 2016-09-20 India s cities have dramatically changed since the country's liberalization in the 1990s. Alongside open air markets and crumbling apartment blocks, spacious air conditioned malls now sell Louis Vuitton luggage and Swarovski crystal. New gated communities offer residents pools and indoor gyms and towering office buildings house international firms. Landscapes of Accumulation is about this violent sudden and spectacular urban transformation. Anthropologist Llerena Searle gives an ethnographic account of how land is becoming an international financial resource rather than a site for agricultural or industrial production. Investors, consultants and government officials are creating a system of clear land titles, well developed and securitized mortgage markets and practices for financing constructing, leasing and maintaining buildings. But Searle shows that there is also considerable semiotic work involved. Drawing on fieldwork with investors, developers, real estate agents and others, she documents how stories about growth, the growth of consumer demand, the Indian workforce, the Indian Gross Domestic Product, incomes, foreign investments and real estate itself become self fulfilling prophecies. These imaginative statements rather than specific state and city mandates are shaping India's built environment which has become increasingly difficult to navigate for all but a tiny urban elite. This book will be essential reading for anyone interested in the consequences of turning land into an international financial engine and more broadly the material ramifications of late capitalism's global reach. The Routledge Companion to Art in the Public Realm Cameron Cartiere, Leon Tan, 2020-10-19. This multidisciplinary companion offers a comprehensive overview of the global arena of public art. It is organised around four distinct topics: activation, social justice, memory and identity and ecology, with a final chapter mapping significant works of public and social practice art around the world between 2008 and 2018. The thematic approach brings into view similarities and differences in the recent globalisation of public art practices while the multidisciplinary emphasis allows for a consideration of the complex outcomes and consequences of such practices as they engage different disciplines and communities and affect a diversity of audiences beyond the existing art world. The book will highlight an international selection of artist projects that illustrate the themes. This book will be of interest to scholars in contemporary art, art history, urban studies and museum studies. Paper Families Estelle T. Lau, 2007-04-04. A look at how the Chinese Exclusion Act and later legislation affected Chinese American communities who created fictitious paper families to subvert immigration policies.
