The Changing Face Of World Missions Encountering Mission:

The Changing Face of World Missions (Encountering Mission) Michael Pocock, Gailyn Van Rheenen, Douglas McConnell, 2005-10-01 The dramatic changes that have taken place both in global society and in the church have implications for how the church does missions in the twenty first century These trends include the rise of postmodernism the spiritual decline in the West and the advance of the gospel in the rest of the world and the impact of technology on society and missions The Changing Face of World Missions is for the mission minded church leader or lay person who wants to understand these trends Each chapter identifies and evaluates a trend examines it in light of Scripture and proposes a practical response Important terms are defined and sidebars help readers think through the issues on their own The Changing Face of World Missions Michael Pocock, 2005 Dramatic changes have taken place in global society and in the church that have implications for how the church does missions in the twenty first century This guide helps readers understand these trends The Changing Face of World Missions Michael Pocock, Gailyn Van Rheenen, Douglas McConnell, 2005-10 Dramatic changes have taken place in global society and in the church that have implications for how the church does missions in the twenty first century This guide helps readers understand these trends Christianity Encountering World Religions (Encountering Mission) Terry C. Muck, Frances S. Adeney, 2009-04-01 The current religious climate poses unique challenges to those engaged in mission Thus the authors of this book propose a new yet very biblical model for interacting with people of other faiths They term this model giftive mission as it is based on the metaphor of free gift We bear the greatest gift possible the gospel message Adopting this perspective not only has the potential for greater missionary success but also enables us to more closely imitate God's gracious activity in the world The core of the book explores eleven practices that characterize giftive mission Each practice is illustrated through the story of a figure from mission history who embodied that practice Further discussion shows how to incorporate these practices in specific mission settings Encountering Theology of Mission (Encountering Mission) Craig Ott, Stephen J. Strauss, Timothy C. Tennent, 2010-05-01 This fresh comprehensive text fills a need for an up to date theology of mission It offers creative approaches to answering some of the most pressing questions in theology of mission and missionary practice today The authors who are leading mission experts discuss biblical theology of mission provide historical overviews of the development of various viewpoints and address theologically current issues in global mission from an evangelical perspective This readable yet thorough text integrates current views of the kingdom of God and holistic mission with traditional views of evangelism and church planting It also brings theology of mission into conversation with ecclesiology and eschatology Topics covered include contextualization the missionary vocation church and mission and theology of religions Sidebars and case studies enable readers to see how theology of mission touches real life mission practice Hybridizing Mission Peter T. Lee, 2022-09-27 This qualitative study explores intercultural social dynamics among international Christian workers who are part of multicultural teams engaged in Christian ministries in a North African country. It seeks to understand these workers' lived realities at intersections of multiple cultural flows. Ethnographic methods were used to collect and analyze data and forty-nine international Christian workers were interviewed. The findings of this study indicate that intercultural Christian workers go through complex intercultural social processes interwoven in the fabric of their everyday life. These processes are mediated by their social experiences in the local North African context and their multicultural teams resulting in significant changes in their personal dispositions and social behaviors. Based on these findings, a working concept of diasporic habitus is developed and the practice of double discourses of culture is further examined. This research suggests that some existing missiological concepts need to be revisited and recommends further interdisciplinary conversations involving cultural anthropology and sub-fields in psychology about the changes that happen to people in intercultural missions. It also calls for a reflexive approach to missiological research that incorporates awareness of one's situatedness and the lasting impact of historical entanglements on contemporary intercultural relations.

The Globalization of Christianity Gordon L. Heath, Steven M. Studebaker, 2015-01-20 While Christianity appears to be in decline in the West, it is growing robustly in the global South. What does this mean for the Christianity that was once considered to be the religion of the West? The new contexts and trajectories require innovative responses and relevant theological reflection in the church. This volume addresses these changes through identifying and analyzing global shifts, highlighting practical innovations in the church that attempt to deal with new trajectories and proposing theological positions intended to help face the issues and challenges of the twenty-first century. Contributors to this volume include Philip Jenkins, The Next Christendom; The New Faces of Christianity; God's Continent; Steven M. Studebaker; Gordon L. Heath; Bradley K. Broadhead; Christof Sauer; Lee Beach; Michael P. Knowles; Peter Althouse; Michael Wilkinson; John H. Issak; David K. Taurus; and Seongho Kang.

Changing World, Unchanging Mission M. David Sills, 2015-08-28 The world continues to globalize and urbanize at a rapid pace. Technology and social media have transformed how people interact. Despite recent advances and innovations, countless people groups across the globe still lack access to the gospel of Jesus Christ. How should the church mobilize to reach the world? Now more than ever before, Christians need to be aware of the changing landscape before us. Missions expert David Sills shares this one-stop shop of key global challenges confronting Christian mission in the twenty-first century. In ten topical chapters, he identifies ways practitioners can be faithful to God's call, help without hurting, reach oral learners, conduct short-term missions responsibly, engage in business as mission strategically, and much more. While the world is fluid, God's mission endures. Discover anew how the eternal gospel can make its way to every tribe and nation.

Strategy Coordinator R. Bruce Carlton, 2011 In 1976 the Southern Baptist Convention adopted its Bold New Thrusts in Foreign Missions with the overarching goal of sharing the gospel with every person in the world by the year 2000. The formation of Cooperative Services International (CSI) in 1985 and the assigning of the first non-residential missionary (NRM) in 1987 demonstrated the Foreign Mission Board's now

International Mission Board commitment to take the gospel message to countries that restricted traditional missionary presence and to people groups identified as having little or no access to the gospel Carlton traces the historical development along with an analysis of the key components of the paradigm and its significant impact on Southern Baptists missiology Dr Carlton has produced an outstanding one of a kind work addressing the influence of the non residential missionary strategy coordinator s role in Southern Baptist missions This well written scholarly text examines the twentieth century global missiological currents that influenced the leadership of the International Mission Board resulting in a new paradigm to assist in taking the gospel to the nations Dr Carlton writes as both a missiologist and a missionary This work reveals the keen eye of a scholar but also the heart of a practitioner who desires to see the multiplication of disciples leaders and churches across the globe This text is a must read for anyone longing to know more about the recent history of the International Mission Board and the theology and missiology behind the SC role and church planting movements J D Payne National Missionary North American Mission Board and Assistant Professor of Church Planting and Evangelism The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary I have enjoyed friendship and partnership in the gospel with Bruce Carlton in different capacities When I served as the Strategy Coordinator for a South Asian city Bruce was my supervisor He helped me understand what I was trying to do and how I should be doing it Since my return to pastoral ministry in America Bruce has been a missiological dialogue partner In both capacities Bruce has been a flame stoker fanning the flames of commitment to make disciples of all nations I m glad that Bruce has taken on the task of explaining and evaluating the development of the Nonresidential Missionary NRM and Strategy Coordinator SC paradigms He writes from three important perspectives Bruce writes as an insider In Cambodia Bruce was a practitioner of what has developed into the SC approach His work was at the wellspring of hundreds of reproducing churches After leaving Cambodia Bruce taught and mentored many men and women in methodologies for planting reproducing churches Bruce has lived through the development of these paradigms as an effective practitioner Bruce writes as an insightful researcher He asks important questions about the NRM SC and Church Planting Movement paradigms and searches for honest answers Finally Bruce writes as a respecer of the relational character of missions On the front lines of gospel advance the Spirit mediates the word through people Grand strategies and paradigms also develop within relational contexts From these three perspectives Bruce helps us understand why the paradigms have developed as they have and equips us to ask key questions as we look forward E Coye Still III PhD R Bruce Carlton served in Asia from 1986 to 2007 as a church planter Strategy Coordinator and trainer in areas and among peoples with little or no access to the gospel He is the author of Acts 29 Practical Training for Facilitating Church Planting Movements Among the Neglected Harvest Fields a manual for training Strategy Coordinators that has been translated into seventeen different languages Presently Carlton serves as the Associate Professor of Missions at Boyce College a school of Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville Kentucky USA

Cross-Cultural Missional Partnership Joshua Bowman, 2023-03-28 Cross cultural partnerships in today's global environment are both challenging and necessary. Misunderstanding and miscommunication often lead to conflict between culturally diverse groups. Christians must understand and evaluate their own culture, the culture of others, and the text of Scripture itself while remaining faithful to Scripture and relevant to culture. Unmediated tensions combined with relational isolation lead to a myriad of problems. This study proposes cross-cultural missional partnership as a relationship that mediates these tensions, thereby encouraging mutual faithful engagement in the mission of God. Cross-cultural tensions may never disappear, but within a healthy partnership, partners can assist one another in understanding and responding faithfully to Scripture. Partners help one another more faithfully interpret and apply Scripture, leading to obedience to God's will and engagement in God's mission within unique and diverse contexts.
