

Legal and Ethical Implications for Teachers in Classroom Management, Control, & Discipline.

- ❖ Teachers have used many different strategies and techniques over the past several years when implementing classroom management. According to research, classroom management involves several components that needs to be addressed by the teacher. Some of these strategies include preventative, corrective, and positive support techniques (Elliot, Kerr, Levin, & Nolan, 2012).
- ❖ Teachers need to be knowledgeable about the legal and ethical issues when managing the students in their classrooms. Teachers have legal and ethical standards to which they must uphold to, in order to avoid violating the rights of the students in their classrooms and their school.
