The Origins of Maya States Loa P. Traxler, Robert J. Sharer, 2016-10-28

The Pre Columbian Maya were organized into a series of independent kingdoms or polities rather than unified into a single state The vast majority of studies of Maya states focus on the apogee of their development in the classic period ca 250 850 C E As a result Maya states are defined according to the specific political structures that characterized classic period lowland Maya society The Origins of Maya States is the first study in over 30 years to examine the origins and development of these states specifically during the preceding preclassic period ca 1000 B C E to 250 C E Attempts to understand the origins of Maya states cannot escape the limitations of archaeological data and this is complicated by both the variability of Maya states in time and space and the interplay between internal development and external impacts To mitigate these factors editors Loa P Traxler and Robert J Sharer assemble a collection of essays that combines an examination of topical issues with regional perspectives from both the Maya area and neighboring Mesoamerican regions to highlight the role of interregional interaction in the evolution of Maya states Topics covered include material signatures for the development of Maya states evaluations of extant models for the emergence of Maya states and advancement of new models based on recent archaeological data Contributors address the development of complexity during the preclassic era within the Maya regions of the Pacific coast highlands and lowlands and explore preclassic economic social political and ideological systems that provide a developmental context for the origins of Maya states Contributors Marcello A Canuto John E Clark Ann Cyphers Francisco Estrada Belli David C Grove Norman Hammond Richard D Hansen Eleanor King Michael Love Simon Martin Astrid Runggaldier Robert Sharer Loa Traxler

The Historical Evolution of World-Systems C. Chase-Dunn, E. Anderson, 2005-02-18

The rise and decline of great powers remains a fascinating topic of vigorous debate This book brings together leading scholars to explore the historical evolution of world systems through examining the ebb and flow of great powers over time with particular emphasis on early time periods The book advances understanding of the regularities in the dynamics of empire and the expansion of political social and economic interaction networks from the Bronze Age forward The authors analyze the expansion and contraction of cross cultural trade networks and systems of competing and allying political groupings In premodern times theses ranged from small local trading networks even the very small ones of hunting gathering peoples to the vast Mongol world system Within such systems there is usually one or a very few hegemonic powers How they achieve dominance and how transitions lead to systems change are important topics particularly at a time when the United States position is in flux The chapters in this book review several recent approaches and present a wealth of new findings

Encyclopedia of Technological Hazards and Disasters in the Social Sciences Duane A. Gill, Liesel A. Ritchie, Nnenia M. Campbell, 2024-11-08

The Encyclopedia of Technological

Hazards and Disasters in the Social Sciences brings together an array of global experts to investigate explore and analyse human caused disaster events Providing insights into both the origins and aftermaths of disaster events it offers advanced understanding of a broad range of disaster events facing society during the Anthropocene World Military History Bibliography Barton Hacker,2003-06-01 Preclassical and indigenous nonwestern military institutions and methods of warfare are the chief subjects of this annotated bibliography of work published 1967 1997 Classical antiquity post Roman Europe and the westernized armed forces of the 20th century although covered receive less systematic attention Emphasis is on historical studies of military organization and the relationships between military and other social institutions rather than wars and battles Especially rich in references to the periodical literature the bibliography is divided into eight parts 1 general and comparative topics 2 the ancient world 3 Eurasia since antiquity 4 sub Saharan Africa and Oceania 5 pre Columbian America 6 postcontact America 7 the contemporary nonwestern world and 8 philosophical social scientific natural scientific and other works not primarily historical The Last Civilization Charles Brough,2010-11 The terrorism continues with no end in sight over population grows ever more serious our natural resources are being depleted and corruption runs rampant Will these problems ever be solved The continuing events point to an impending breakdown of our civilization The threat of a new world wide plague mass starvation and nuclear war increases each year No solution is in sight without an understanding of social evolutionary natural selection and how it has shaped world affairs throughout both history and prehistory Only by learning how ideology shapes society is it possible to know what must happen in order for people to be active in the transition from the old into a new society and civilization The author covers topics such as our primate small group social behavior the development of the matriarchal agricultural ideological system the ideology involved in barbarism and the rise of the patriarchal monogamous ideologically based societies and their civilizations Learn why the green revolution is falling behind the biologically related build up of stress and how lagging energy supplies will affect the world Two of the last chapters lay out the structural make up of every successful mainstream world view ideological system They use that to build a facsimile of what the core of such a new and advanced system would have to be like to succeed a perpetual lack of which would ensure that this is indeed The Last Civilization because no other can follow without it

Imperial Ends Alexander J. Motyl,2001-08-01 Despite their historical importance empires have received scant attention from social scientists Now Alexander J Motyl examines the structure dynamics and continuing relevance of empire and asks Why do empires decline Why do some empires collapse And why do some collapsed empires revive Rejecting choice centered theories of imperial decline Motyl maintains that the very structure of empires promotes decay and that decay in turn facilitates the progressive loss of territory Although most major empires have in fact declined in this manner some such as the Soviet Union have collapsed suddenly and comprehensively Motyl explains how and why collapse occurs why such an outcome is hard to foresee and why some collapsed empires revive While broad ranging historically and empirically Imperial

Ends focuses on five modern empires the Soviet Romanov Ottoman Habsburg and Wilhelmine Examining the possibility of a revival of the Soviet empire Motyl points out that the expansion of NATO and the European Union along with increasing globalization will isolate Russia and its neighbors promoting their dependence upon one another and perhaps facilitating the rise of the former core With boldly stated conclusions and concise analytical interpretations Imperial Ends cohesively illustrates to policymakers and social scientists alike the importance of possible imperial revivals and the rise of future empires
