The Elements of Education for School Leaders Julia Chun, Tyler Tingley, William Lidwell, 2022-12-30 What skills are needed to ensure success as a school leader today How do you ensure great teaching and learning is happening in your school How do you build leadership capacity within your teams To answer these questions the authors combined up to date research with their own leadership experiences to assemble fifty essential principles that will help school leaders focus on what is most important This book provides clear concise and valuable advice for school leaders and their leadership teams Each principle is paired with a case study that places each one in a real life context The Elements of Education for School

Leaders is an essential resource for anyone who wants to lead an effective school

Mentoring and Induction Programs That Support New Principals Susan Villani, 2006 Dr Villani's comprehensive new book gives our profession especially those who are new to it a terrific boost. With clarity and great care Villani outlines the critical need for mentoring and induction programs for new school leaders. Using excellent examples she shows us the extremely difficult and varied situations principals face daily. Then she explores well-documented model programs from across the nation that serve as examples and inspiration for all school leaders. Dr Vincent L. Ferrandino, Executive Director, NAESP. Susan Villani's Mentoring Induction Programs that Support New Principals is a comprehensive compendium of ideas and models drawn from school systems, regional education agencies, states, professional associations, and universities. Villani makes a compelling case for the value of supporting beginning principals in new and more powerful ways. She describes how changing educational policies and escalating demands on the principalship have caused an increasing number of states and local districts to seek improved ways to support new principals early in their administrative careers. Most important, Villani provides guidance to readers in translating these ideas and models into new or stronger mentoring and induction programs for the next generation of school principals. Dr Dennis Sparks, Executive Director, NSDC. There is increasing evidence as to the significant role which principals play in reforming schools and in increasing student achievement. Principal induction and mentoring are key components of effective leadership development. This text provides an effective guide for organizations supporting the development of school principals. Dr Gerald N. Tirozzi, Executive Director, NASSP. Make it possible for all new principals to realize their full potential. A well-prepared new principal is essential to the success of an entire school. So why is it one of the least supported positions in the building? In Mentoring and Induction Programs That Support New Principals, mentoring expert Susan Villani addresses the key question of how well new principals are prepared and supported. This is an ideal resource for developing a mentoring or induction program for principals or for enhancing your existing program. This innovative new text offers a close examination of the state of principalship and the needs of new principals as well as a detailed compilation of principal mentoring and induction programs throughout the United States. This useful hands-on guidebook includes a complete understanding of the challenges facing new principals. Practical examples and enlightening vignettes clearly illustrate challenges often faced by novice principals. Detailed tips to encourage and foster new principals. A clear, easy-to-understand comparison of model mentoring and induction programs.

Mentors in the Making Betty Achinstein, Steven Z. Athanases, 2006 In response to a growing interest in mentoring and new teacher induction, the authors offer a unique view of developing quality mentors. Drawing on empirical research, practitioner action inquiry, and field-tested practices from induction programs, they explore effective mentoring in diverse educational contexts. With richly contextualized and thoughtfully analyzed excerpts from actual mentoring conversations and powerful examples of practice, the volume offers educators, researchers, and policymakers a reform-minded vision of the future of mentoring. Challenging conventional wisdom this essential resource Argues that mentors are not born but developed through conscious deliberate ongoing learning Provides a needed link between research and practice in the field of new teacher mentoring to define a knowledge base for effective mentoring Documents induction and mentoring practices that focus new teachers on individual learners equity oriented curriculum and pedagogy and the educator s role in reforming school culture Highlights problems and complexities of enacting mentor knowledge and learning in diverse contexts
