a play about two women who hide a Midwestern farm wife's motive for murdering her abusive husband. Following successful productions of the play, Glaspell became the mother of American drama. Her short story version of Trifles, A Jury of Her Peers, reached an unprecedented one million readers in 1917. The play and the story have since been taught in classrooms across America, and Trifles is regularly revived on stages around the world. This collection of fresh essays celebrates the centennial of Trifles and A Jury of Her Peers with departures from established Glaspell scholarship. Interviews with theater people are included along with two original works inspired by Glaspell's iconic writings.

Live Deep and Suck all the Marrow of Life: H.D. Thoreau's Literary Legacy María Laura Arce Álvarez, Eulalia Piñero Gil, 2020-07-07. Considered to be one of America's great intellectuals, Thoreau was deeply engaged in some of the most important social debates of his day, including slavery, the emergence of consumerism, the American Dream, living on the frontier, the role of the government, and the ecological mind. As testimony to Thoreau's remarkable intellectual heritage, his autobiography, essays, and poetry still continue to inspire and attract readers from across the globe. As a celebration of H.D. Thoreau's Bicentenary 1817-1862, this edited volume offers a re-reading of his works and reconsiders the influence that his transcendentalist philosophy has had on American culture and literature. Taking an intertextual perspective, the contributors to this volume seek to reveal Thoreau's influence on American Literature and Arts from the 19th century onwards and his fundamental contribution to the development of 20th-century American Literature. In particular, this work presents previously unconsidered intertextual analyses of authors that have been influenced by Thoreau's writings. This volume also reveals how Thoreau's influence can be read across literary genres and even seen in visual manifestations such as cinema.

Performing Dream Homes Emily Klein, Jennifer-Scott Mobley, Jill Stevenson, 2019-01-22. This anthology explores how theatre and performance use home as the prism through which we reconcile shifts in national, cultural, and personal identity. Whether examining parlor dramas and kitchen sink realism, site-specific theatre, travelling tent shows, domestic labor, border performances, fences, or front yards, these essays demonstrate how dreams of home are enmeshed with notions of neighborhood, community, politics, and memory. Recognizing the family home as a symbolic space that extends far beyond its walls, the nine contributors to this collection study diverse English language performances from the US, Ireland, and Canada. These scholars of theatre history, dramaturgy, performance, cultural studies, feminist and gender studies, and critical race studies also consider the value of home at a time increasingly defined by crises of homelessness, a moment when major cities face affordable housing shortages, when debates about homeland and citizenship have dominated international elections, and when conflicts and natural disasters have displaced millions. Global struggles over immigration, sanctuary, refugee status, and migrant labor make the stakes of home and homelessness ever more urgent and visible, as this timely collection reveals.

Susan Glaspell and Sophie Treadwell Barbara Ozieblo, Jerry Dickey, 2008-03-03. This is the first book to deal with Glaspell and Treadwell's plays from a theatrical perspective and presents a comprehensive overview from lesser-known plays to seminal productions of Trifles and Machinal.

The Cambridge Companion to Edward Albee Stephen Bottoms, 2005-07-21 Edward Albee perhaps best known for his acclaimed and infamous 1960s drama Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf? is one of America's greatest living playwrights. Now in his seventies he is still writing challenging award-winning dramas. This collection of essays on Albee which includes contributions from the leading commentators on Albee's work brings fresh critical insights to bear by exploring the full scope of the playwright's career from his 1959 breakthrough with The Zoo Story to his recent Broadway success The Goat or Who is Sylvia (2002). The contributors include scholars of both theatre and English literature and the essays thus consider the plays both as literary texts and as performed drama. The collection considers a number of Albee's lesser-known and neglected works, provides a comprehensive introduction and overview and includes an exclusive original interview with Mr Albee on topics spanning his whole career.

Home on the Stage Nicholas Grene, 2014-10-02 As a serious drama set in an ordinary middle-class home, Ibsen's A Doll's House established a new politics of the interior that was to have a lasting impact upon twentieth-century drama. In this innovative study, Nicholas Grene traces the changing forms of the home on the stage through nine of the greatest of modern plays and playwrights. From Chekhov's The Cherry Orchard through to Williams' A Streetcar Named Desire, domestic spaces and personal crises have been employed to express wider social conditions and themes of class, gender and family. In the later twentieth century and beyond, the most radically experimental dramatists created their own challenging theatrical interiors, including Beckett in Endgame, Pinter in The Homecoming and Parks in Topdog/Underdog. Grene analyses the full significance of these versions of domestic spaces to offer fresh insights into the portrayal of the naturalistic environment in modern drama.
