Monkey Bar Adventure Angela Kirkpatrick, 2005-07 For anyone who has had the pleasure of raising teaching or being around children Monkey Bar Adventure opens your eyes to a wonderful new way to forge a bond with children based on a deeper relationship with God As parents and caregivers we experience a variety of different moments with our children Those monster moments nearly convince us that God sent them with the primary purpose of punishing us There are the funny monkey moments at which we laugh and are amazed at the thoughts in those tiny little heads But it's in the treasured angel moments that we see Jesus himself During these times when we look at them as Jesus did we realize that God is the only perfect parent He desires the same behaviors from us that we want from our children Learn how to become better parents by first becoming better children of God If you want to know the truth about Jesus calling the children to him then come join the Monkey Bar Adventure Wide-Awake in God's World Graham D. Stanton, 2020-10-08 In an expressivist culture effective engagement must acknowledge teenagers freedom to choose their own spiritual path Yet in an evangelical theology faithful formation must hold on to biblical authority As we seek to engage young people with the Bible key questions need to be explored Such questions include how can pedagogical freedom be affirmed without undermining theological authority and how can authority be asserted without diminishing personal freedom This study explores a freedom authority dialectic in theological dialogue with the educational philosophy of Maxine Greene Greene's reflection on the arts and the imagination are brought into conversation with insights from Charles Taylor Garret Green and Nicholas Wolterstorff As a work of practical theology the book concludes with a framework to shape the purpose content and values for Bible engagement in contemporary youth ministry
