Media Sensation Reddit Book Discussions:

Narratives, Nerdfighters, and New Media Jennifer Burek Pierce, 2020-11-15 For decades we've been warned that video killed the radio star and more recently that social media has replaced reading Nerdfighteria a first of its kind online literary community with nearly three million members challenges these assumptions It is the brainchild of brothers Hank and John Green who provide literary themed programming on their website and YouTube channel including video clips from John a best selling author most famous for his young adult book The Fault in Our Stars These clips not only give fans personal insights into his works and the writing process writ large they also provide unique access to the author inspiring fans to create their own fan art and make connections with one another In the twenty first century reading and watching videos are related activities that allow people to engage with authors and other readers Whether they turn to The Fault in Our Stars or titles by lesser known authors Nerdfighters are readers Incorporating thousands of testimonials about what they read and why Jennifer Burek Pierce not only sheds light on this particular online community she also reveals what it tells us about the changing nature of reading in the digital age In Nerdfighteria we find a community who shows us that being online doesn't mean disinterest in books

Youth Digital Health and Online Platforms Martyna Gliniecka, 2024-12-27 Youth Digital Health and Online Platforms focuses on young people's use of the digital platform Reddit for health Drawing upon dialogism theory the book explores how young people produce a youth led discourse of youth digital health different from the adult led framing represented in youth digital health research policy and service delivery Peer led discussions online remain one of the controversial forms of youth digital health associated with negative peer influence or casual teenage talk This book argues that online peer led dialogues support young people's agency in health and that young people can benefit from dealing with health issues with peers The work is based on the digital ethnography of teenagers' subreddits on Reddit and utilises a theoretical framework of dialogism a linguistic based theory originated by an early 20th century Russian philosopher Mikhail Bakhtin The book introduces the concept of dialogical youth led youth digital health discourse formed in the peer led space of Reddit This youth led discourse celebrates equality and diversity amongst people meanings and opinions It is constructed around three relational elements socio material affordances creative practices and a plurality of youth voices Reddit's pseudonymous anti authoritarian and egalitarian nature supports the emergence of this youth led discourse The book can interest scholars and lecturers in childhood and youth studies Internet studies and youth health studies Professionals such as policymakers service designers deliverers online safety educators and global youth and health agencies can use evidence based insights in their work with young people

Understanding Reddit Elliot T. Panek,2021-12-24 This book offers a comprehensive scholarly overview of Reddit one of the most popular and least studied social platforms of the early 21st century The book inspires new ways of thinking about Reddit considering it from multiple perspectives through a historical lens as a site where identity is forged as a democracy as a community and as a news aggregator and distributor By bringing theories from computer mediated communication communication studies and sociology to bear on original large scale observational analyses of Reddit s communities this book provides a uniquely comprehensive overview of the platform s first 15 years Understanding Reddit will help us make sense of how rapidly growing communities function in an era of mass online anonymity Serving both as a primer on how social behavior on Reddit plays out and as a way of locating it within multiple theoretical traditions the book will offer important insights to scholars and students in the disciplines of communication media studies information science internet and emerging media studies and sociology

Navigating Modern Love: Transforming Challenges into Connections John Buchanan, 2024-04-19 Are you feeling overwhelmed and frustrated with the modern dating scene You re not alone The dating world has evolved rapidly introducing many challenges that can make finding love feel like navigating a minefield Imagine a dating landscape where these common pain points are addressed and mitigated From the paradox of overwhelming choices on dating apps to the disappointment of misrepresentation we understand how these issues can make dating exhausting Ghosting catfishing and superficial judgments based on photos have become all too common leaving many disillusioned The time consuming nature of swiping and chatting often leads to little payoff while the lack of deep meaningful connections leaves a void Safety concerns communication barriers and dating fatigue are real issues that can t be ignored What if there was a way to navigate these challenges effectively A method that not only acknowledges these pain points but offers practical solutions Imagine a dating experience where your time is valued genuine connections are prioritized over superficial encounters and your safety and privacy are paramount Envision a platform that encourages honest representation fostering a community where trust and respect are the foundation Think about a dating journey where your self esteem is boosted not bruised and finding a compatible partner isn t an endless marathon but a fulfilling journey This isn t just a dream it s a possibility We re dedicated to transforming the modern dating experience addressing these challenges head on to create a more positive fruitful and safe dating environment for everyone If you re tired of the usual pitfalls of modern dating and yearn for a change join us Be part of a movement that values authenticity deep connections and respectful interactions Say goodbye to the frustrations and hello to a new era of dating Your journey towards a meaningful relationship starts here

You Should Quit Reddit Jacob Desforges, 2023-02-21 In recent years countless books articles and documentaries have addressed the negative effects that social media platforms have wrought on their users and society However these former works are incomplete nearly no attention has been paid to Reddit one of the most popular websites in the world Reddit is certainly unique among social platforms but its potential for addiction and darker side of nefarious activity should absolutely not be understated Additionally nearly no actionable advice has been provided to users of these platforms The audience is told that these websites and apps are harming their mental health wasting their time and that they are addictive which would logically make the task of quitting rather difficult but then provided zero guidance on how to disconnect from them Over 200 000 users gather on Reddit's r/NoSurf community to discuss reducing their internet use the forum is filled with reports of people who want to quit Reddit but find themselves psychologically compelled to return to the site over and over For moderate to heavy users of these platforms quitting is clearly not so simple You Should Quit Reddit is a paradigm shift in the genre Jacob Desforges was a Reddit user of over a decade and a self admitted Reddit addict who spent on average around three hours daily on the site Not only is this the first book investigating Reddit's flaws as a platform but it is also written from the perspective of someone who experienced firsthand the struggle that comes with quitting these addictive platforms This book therefore also provides readers with the practical advice tools and techniques needed to shatter the cycle of digital addiction enabling them to quit visiting Reddit and other time wasting websites for good so they can effectively reclaim their time to use in a more intentional manner The

Circle of the Snake Grafton Tanner, 2020-12-11 Shocked by 9 11 the Great Recession digital anxiety and ecological collapse the West suffers from nostalgia People everywhere yearn for a utopian version of the past that never existed Desperate for relief many long to escape from the present Some will stop at nothing to achieve it In his essential new book Grafton Tanner author of Babbling Corpse Vaporwave and the Commodification of Ghosts argues that our nostalgia today is partly a consequence of the attention economy At a time when historical literacy is crucial and old prejudices are percolating into the present Big Tech's predictive algorithms are locking us into nostalgic feedback loops The result is a precarious society with its gaze fixed on the good old days Spanning from the ancient Sophists to Black Mirror The Circle of the Snake is at once a reckoning with the myth of digital utopia and an incisive analysis of nostalgia as a weapon to spread fascism The
