Nigerian Speculative Fiction Chukwunonso Ezeiyoke, 2025-05-30 This book is an exciting addition to a gap in non Western genre studies of African fiction It challenges the dominant canonicity of African literature which is overshadowed by texts concerned with the colonial discourse and writing back while exploring speculative themes in Nigerian fiction and writing that stem from an African cosmology and culture The book examines important twentieth century precursors of the post millennial boom in Nigerian Speculative Fiction SF reading texts that were omitted from the Nigerian literary canon developed in the 1960s It combines an analysis of recent fiction and criticism with a historical overview of the development of the under researched area of Nigerian SF Through these readings the author demonstrates the range of concerns explored by Nigerian SF including futurism posthumanism horror fantasy and science fiction among others This book argues that these narratives exceed the binary implicitly sustained by the texts that write back to the West and offers new readings of contemporary Nigerian SF works that imagine futures different from the past and present conditions imposed by capitalism colonialism and imperialism Providing new theoretical tools and concepts this book in the Studies in Global Genre Fiction series will be of interest to readers and scholars working in the fields of African studies African culture and society literature and language interdisciplinary literary studies area studies literary criticism and genre studies

Caribbean Inhospitallity Natalie Lauren Belisle, 2025 The Caribbean has a global reputation for extending unparalleled hospitality to foreign guests Yet local citizens express feeling alienated from the Caribbean nations they call home Here Natalie Lauren Belisle probes the relationship between these incompatible narratives of Caribbean life Departing from tourist centered critiques of the Caribbean s visitor economy Belisle instead gives primacy to the political life of the Caribbean citizen subject within a broader hospitality regime Reading literary cinematic and digital texts that traverse the Spanish Anglophone and Francophone Caribbean Belisle interprets citizens estrangement through misdirected political deliberation and demonstrates that inhospitallity is institutionalized through the aesthetic reproducing itself in the laws that condition belonging and membership in the nation state Ultimately Caribbean Inhospitallity recasts the decay of nation state sovereignty in the postcolonial Caribbean within the contours of neoliberalism international relations and cosmopolitanism
