

Use the following types of conflict in fiction to help create ideas for plot points within your story:

the character struggles to survive in the face of deadly wildlife, natural disasters, or a post-apocalyptic landscape known as wild animal, known as apocalypse story, example: Hugh Glass or the wilderness (and a vicious bear) in the westward

the character battles against paranormal entities like ghosts, demons, monsters, and other creatures of the occult.

the character fights against a prophecy, attack, or prediction person in destiny story example: Odysseus vs the prophecy in Odysseus Rex the character fights against technology that has become too powerful or is being used for malicious reasons person is smart human person is robot person is experiment story's premise: Dr. Frankenstein's creation in Frankenstein

What obstacles will the characters in your story face that contrast or intensify that point and theme?

This image shows a single sheet of white paper with horizontal blue or grey ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. On the left side, there is a vertical margin line, creating a narrow left margin. The paper appears to be a standard notebook page.

War, Nation and Europe in the Novels of Storm Jameson Katherine Cooper, 2020-04-16 The novels of Storm Jameson and their depictions of Britain's relationship to Europe around the Second World War represent a crucial departure from the work of her contemporaries As the first female President of English PEN Jameson led her country's wartime literary community through turbulent times in history by focusing on European rather than pointedly British experiences of war War Nation and Europe in the Novels of Storm Jameson is a timely critique situated within the historical and theoretical contexts so fundamental to understanding her work Presenting previously unpublished archival material that documents her work as an ambassador for British writers during a time of national upheaval Katherine Cooper reveals how the novelist's pacifism and evolving attitudes to war and peace were underpinned by her overarching vision for the post war world Drawing comparisons to the works of Virginia Woolf Arthur Koestler Graham Greene and others this study shows how Jameson's novels gesture towards prevalent internationalist perspectives and reshapes how we view the literary history of the period

Nephilim Architecture and Megalithic Monuments Learn Alchemical, 2025-09-23 Across the high Andes the Nile Valley Mesopotamia and beyond there stand stones that refuse to fall Colossal walls that withstand earthquakes platforms weighing hundreds of tons and temples aligned with the heavens all raise the same enduring question who built them and how Nephilim Architecture and Megalithic Monuments explores the mysterious overlap between ancient myth and enduring stone From the biblical Nephilim and the Watchers of Enoch to Andean legends of giant builders and global traditions of titans this book traces a blueprint of memory connecting mythological giants with the world's most enigmatic ruins Were these monuments the work of forgotten engineers cultures older than history or hybrid beings whose knowledge blurred the line between divine and human This sweeping study does not surrender to fantasy nor does it silence the questions posed by stone and story Instead it follows the global echoes of giants analyzing how megalithic monuments embody both lost sciences and living myths For readers fascinated by archaeology biblical mysteries and the architecture of the impossible Nephilim Architecture and Megalithic Monuments offers a bold journey into the deep past where myth and stone speak together
