Century Education contributes original thinking to the field of literacy and learning and would be an excellent resource for literacy and language professors or instructors in a post graduate or professional development program Penny Silvers Professor of Education Dominican University USA English a Changing Medium for Education Constant Leung, Brian V. Street, 2012-07-25 In this volume a range of authors from different international contexts argue that the notion of communicative competence in English hitherto largely referenced to metropolitan native speaker norms has to be expanded to take account of diverse contexts of use for a variety of purposes It also discusses the popular belief that language and literacy should simply be regarded as a technical skill which confers universal benefits and that it should be replaced with a social practice view that recognises situated variations and diversity This volume we believe provides a reference point for extended research and practice in these areas that will be of interest to wide range of people engaged in language and literacy education

Digital Media in Education Michelle Cannon, 2018-06-19 This book argues for dynamic and relevant school experiences for primary and early secondary learners that embed digital media production It proposes a vision of literacy that combines new technologies with multiple modes of meaning making Drawing on theories related to cultural studies media literacy anthropology and creativity the author explores learning strategies with digital media based on an empowering values driven framework The book advances innovative teaching methods critiquing educational reforms that marginalise media and fail to engage with the complex tensions and textures of modern pedagogy Positioning film and media making as vital practices in schools that nurture the skills dispositions and competencies of modern literacy the model foregrounds connections between human agency cognition and creative practice This innovative book will appeal to students and scholars of creativity digital media production primary education and literacy
