Space Academy How To Fly Spacecraft Step By Step:

Space Academy Deborah Kespert, David Baker, 2013-06-04 An interactive introduction to space travel that encourages children to imagine themselves piloting spacecraft Here is a training class that shows children how to pilot different kinds of spacecraft Filled with stats and facts this book covers essential space science plus the latest space hardware gadgets and know how An introductory Astronaut School section looks at the technology of space travel In Orbit takes children into space putting them in the hot seat on different kinds of spacecraft or at mission control They learn how to fly an Apollo rocket to the Moon take a space shuttle to the International Space Station go on a spacewalk and ferry a cargo of tourists into zero gravity The ID section at the back of the book explains how to identify different kinds of rockets and manned and unmanned craft including probes rovers and shuttles Engineer Academy: Space Rob Colson, 2020-05-05 Assemble a launch pad build a rocket and go on a hands on adventure around our solar system and beyond This is no ordinary maker kit It contains everything kids need to assemble a launch pad for a model three stage rocket as well as build the rocket and planets of our solar system As construction begins young engineers in training can read along in the accompanying 64 page science activity book to test theories perform experiments and learn all about gravity the Law of Motion orbital velocity and more as they relate to the space models Focusing on STEM concepts in a fun and engaging way this kit is a great option for an upcoming science fair or a quiet rainy day at home Technology for Large Space Systems, 1983 Gemini - Steps to the Moon Shayler David, 2001-09-01 In Gemini Steps to the Moon David Shayler the author tells the story of the origin and development of the programme and the spacecraft from the perspective of the engineers flight controllers and astronauts involved It includes chapters on flight tests Extra Vehicular Activity EVA rendezvous and docking as well as information from NASA archives and personal interviews Space Physiology and Medicine Arnauld E. Nicogossian, Richard S. Williams, Carolyn L. Huntoon, Charles R. Doarn, James D. Polk, Victor S. Schneider, 2016-12-13 As space medicine evolved from the late 1950s onward the need arose for a ready reference for students and practitioners on the basic concepts of this new specialty Through three editions edited by leaders in the development of space medicine this classic text has met the need This fourth edition of Space Physiology and Medicine provides succinct evidence based summaries of the current knowledge base in space medicine and serves as a source of information on the space environment responses and practices Additionally there is extensive online material available for each chapter featuring overviews and self study questions The Partnership Edward Clinton Ezell, Linda Neuman Ezell, 2013-01-16 The 1975 Apollo Soyuz Test Project ASTP was the first joint U S Soviet space flight in which teams from the two nations met in orbit to test an international docking system and conduct both collaborative and independent studies Although primarily a symbol of international goodwill the mission provided useful experience for future cooperative ventures between the two nations This authorized NASA history features many fascinating interviews with participants as well as firsthand observations of ASTP activities Because details of the Soviet space program remained shrouded in secrecy during the ASTP the story is told from the American perspective No scientific background is necessary to appreciate the narrative which focuses on the participants working relationships rather than the technical aspects of their jobs Starting with the early years of the Cold War competition it traces the formation of an alliance between NASA and Soviet Academy engineers in developing a test project training the crew and the triumphant flight Eighty six pages of photographs include twelve full color pages with images of Earth from space
