5. What literary device occurs when she says, "Life among the wrong children, the wrong attitude."
6. What literary device does she use when describing the school?

"The Opposite of Happiness Is Regretful?"
What does the term "regretful" mean to you?	After the negative experience of the year really she is becoming more strongly about. I could literally mean she feels regretful about her life. She is not in the dark and can finally see the light. She could improve her life by being more positive.
"Hoping"
Would you want to be friends with Michael? Why does she stick with Michael?	"Hoping" is a literary device that is used to show the author's hope for the future. It is a way of saying that the author is optimistic about the future. The author is hoping that the future will be a better place than the present. The author is hoping that the future will be a place where people are more kind and more understanding. The author is hoping that the future will be a place where people are more happy and more successful.
Does Michael really care about his friends? Why or why not?	Michael is the only one who is interested in his friends. He is the only one who is willing to help them. He is the only one who is willing to listen to them. He is the only one who is willing to support them. He is the only one who is willing to be there for them. He is the only one who is willing to be a friend to them.
"The Future"
What is the author's view of the future?	She has a positive view of the future. She believes that the future is full of possibilities. She believes that the future is a place where people can be happy and successful. She believes that the future is a place where people can be kind and understanding. She believes that the future is a place where people can be more than they are now.
