Special Ed Voices From A Hidden Classroom:

The Age of Inequality Jeremy Gantz, 2017-04-18 The stories behind the inequality crisis a forty year investigation by In These Times With heart wrenching reporting and incisive analysis In These Times magazine has charted a staggering rise in inequality and the fall of the American middle class Here in a selection from four decades of articles by investigative reporters and progressive thinkers is the story of our age It is a tale of shockingly successful corporate takeovers stretching from Reagan to Trump but also of brave attempts to turn the tide from the Seattle global justice protests to Occupy to the Fight for 15 Featuring contributions from Michelle Chen Noam Chomsky Tom Geoghegan Juan Gonz lez David Moberg Salim Muwakkil Ralph Nader Frances Fox Piven Keeanga Yamahtta Taylor Slavoj i ek and many others The Age of Inequality is the definitive account of a defining issue of our time

Understanding the Development of Inclusive Schools Mel Ainscow, 2002-01-04 The current emphasis on individualised intervention programmes for students with special needs may not only be impractical but also undesirable This book compares and contrasts special needs approaches with school effectiveness strategies The author sets out theories about inclusive schooling that arise out of a detailed scrutiny of practice The link between theory and practice will be welcomed by many practitioners With extensive examples from the field to illustrate Ainscow s ideas this is an eminently accessible text

The Routledge International Companion to Emotional and Behavioural Difficulties Ted Cole, Harry Daniels, John Visser, 2012-10-12 Responding to disruptive or troubled pupils with emotional and behavioural difficulties EBD remains a highly topical issue The challenges these children present relate to wider issues of continuing political concern the perceived declining discipline in schools school and social exclusion the limits to inclusion for children with special needs increasing mental health difficulties in children youth crime and parenting skills It s little wonder that the EBD often known as BESD or SEBD category is one of the most common forms of SEN around the world This topical and exhaustively researched Companion examines the difficulties of defining EBD and the dangers of allocating this imprecise label to children Bringing together the work of contributors from fifteen countries and across four continents this book features the research of leading experts in the global field of EBD who discuss and debate educators key concerns by looking at the overlaps between EBD ADHD and mental health difficulties outlining the types of appropriate schooling for children with EBD urging readers to look beyond pupils challenging behaviour in order to understand and respond to the social biological and psychological causation considering the key areas of assessment whole school and targeted approaches that help pupils with EBD in mainstream and in special settings outlining helpful work with families the crucial contribution of effective multi agency working and the importance of supporting and developing teachers who work with challenging pupils Containing contrasting views on controversial topics this Companion s approachable style makes it an essential reference book for academics policy makers practitioners educators and students who are working towards a higher degree in education
