Specters Of Paul Specters Of Paul:

Specters of Paul Benjamin H. Dunning, 2011-02-07 The first Christians operated with a hierarchical model of sexual difference common to the ancient Mediterranean with women considered to be lesser versions of men Yet sexual difference was not completely stable as a conceptual category across the spectrum of formative Christian thinking Rather early Christians found ways to exercise theological creativity and to think differently from one another as they probed the enigma of sexually differentiated bodies In Specters of Paul Benjamin H Dunning explores this variety in second and third century Christian thought with particular attention to the ways the legacy of the apostle Paul fueled shaped and also constrained approaches to the issue Paul articulates his vision of what it means to be human primarily by situating human beings between two poles creation Adam and resurrection Christ But within this framework where does one place the figure of Eve and the difference that her female body represents Dunning demonstrates that this dilemma impacted a range of Christian thinkers in the centuries immediately following the apostle including Clement of Alexandria Irenaeus of Lyons Tertullian of Carthage and authors from the Nag Hammadi corpus While each of these thinkers attempts to give the difference of the feminine a coherent place within a Pauline typological framework Dunning shows that they all fail to deliver fully on the coherence that they promise Instead sexual difference haunts the Pauline discourse of identity and sameness as the difference that can be neither fully assimilated nor fully ejected a conclusion with important implications not only for early Christian history but also for feminist and queer philosophy and theology

Specters Jeff Gelb, 2011-11-09 An unexplained drowning A brutal murder at a dinner party A kid's Halloween prank gone wrong Paul and Johnny have been best friends since they were kids hell they've been best friends since their parents were kids but now events seem to be tearing them apart When the boys are involved in a tragic car accident it seems likely that their friendship will be broken forever Even Paul can see that Johnny's new friend Vic is a troublemaker and Johnny's fascination with the axe murderer who's rampaging through town is creeping Paul out At the same time Paul's having dreams and visions of dead people With Johnny distracted Paul turns to the neighborhood witch for answers but sometimes you don't get the answer you were looking for

Specters of War Elisabeth Bronfen, 2012-10-03 Specters of War looks at the way war has been brought to the screen in various genres and at different historical moments throughout the twentieth century and into the twenty first Elisabeth Bronfen asserts that Hollywood has emerged as a place where national narratives are created and circulated so that audiences can engage with fantasies ideologies and anxieties that take hold at a given time only to change with the political climate Such cultural reflection is particularly poignant when it deals with America's traumatic history of war The nation has no direct access to war as a horrific experience of carnage and human destruction we understand our relation to it through images and narratives that transmit and interpret it for us

Bronfen does not discuss actual conflicts but the films by which we have come to know and remember them including All Quiet on the Western Front The Best Years of Our Lives Miracle at St Anna The Deer Hunter and Flags of Our Fathers Battles and campaigns the home front and women who wait narratives war correspondents and court martials are also explored as instruments of cultural memory Bronfen argues that we are haunted by past wars and by cinematic re conceptualizations of them and reveals a national iconography of redemptive violence from which we seem unable to escape

Specters of God John D. Caputo, 2022-10-04 In Specters of God John D Caputo returns to the original impulse of his work the mystical element in things here under the name of an anxious apophatics as distinct from an edifying apophatics anchored in unity with God In dialogue with Schelling a new turn for him and the lynchpin of this argument Caputo addresses the nocturnal powers in being the specters that haunt our being and bring us up short The result is an erudite and insightful analysis in his usual lively and masterful style of several key spectral figures from medieval angelology and Eckhart s Gottheit through Luther s deus absconditus and Schelling s Satanology to the spectralization and virtualization of the world in the posthuman age Arguing that the name of God is not the master name of a super being who is going to save us but a placeholder for sources deep in our apophatic imaginary he asks Has God become a holy ghost of the past A passing spectral effect of the ancient harmonies of the spheres Does radical thinking culminate in a cosmopoetics beyond theism and its theology in a doxology to the transient glory of the world whatever it was in the beginning however eerie its end world without why Investigation of the Assassination of President John F. Kennedy United States. Warren Commission, 1964
