The Joys and Wonders on the Life of a Speech Therapist H. Courteney Mayers, 2024-09-17 As a teacher living and working in New York City Department of Education I found myself jotting down or recording many audio anecdotes my students were saying and doing that brought me to tears regularly This book is a lovingly dedicated and devoted memoir which honors the amazing students that crossed my path and the relationship we continue to foster to date It begins with how I got into teaching moving away from the corporate world and finding my destiny as a Speech Pathologist rediscovering my purpose and my passion

Constructing Singapore Michael D. Barr, Zlatko Skrbis, 2008 Constructing Singapore studies Singaporean nation building by focusing on two processes elite formation and elite selection It gives primary attention to the role that ethno racial ascription plays in these processes but also considers the input of personal connections personal power class and gender It is a study of the progress of Singapore's state sponsored nation building project to its current state whereby a Singaporean version of Chinese ethno nationalism has overwhelmed the discourse on national and Singaporean identity Based upon archival research and formal interviews this study unpacks the culture of elite governance in Lee Hsien Loong's Singapore today

Surrender Peter Learn, 2011 A whimsical wacky tale about a defunct school mascot Chester the Beaver and how he comes back to haunt the school principal responsible for his demise It is a witty and outrageously funny book abounding in linguistic pyrotechnics and saturated with literary and pop cultural references But underneath the comic surface of the story are deep questions concerning the nature of free will This is a remarkable first novel sure to impress and entertain
