Species Of Spaces And Other Pieces Penguin Classics:

Species of Spaces and Other Pieces Georges Perec, 1997 This selection of non fictional work from the author of Life a User s Manual demonstrates Georges Perec s characteristic lightness of touch wry humour and accessibility Georges Perec's Geographies Charles Forsdick, Andrew Leak, Richard Phillips , 2019-10-14 Georges Perec novelist filmmaker and essayist was one of the most inventive and original writers of the twentieth century A fascinating aspect of his work is its intrinsically geographical nature With major projects on space and place Perec s writing speaks to a variety of geographical urban and architectural concerns both in a substantive way including a focus on cities streets homes and apartments and in a methodological way experimenting with methods of urban exploration and observation classification enumeration and taxonomy Georges Perec s Geographies is the first book to offer a rounded picture of Perec s geographical interests Divided into two parts Part I Perec s Geographies explores the geographies within Perec s work in film literature and radio from descriptions of streets to the spaces of his texts while Part II Perecquian Geographies explores geographies in a range of material and metaphorical forms including photographic essays soundscapes theatre dance and writing created by those directly inspired by Perec Georges Perec s Geographies extends the body of Perec criticism beyond Literary and French Studies to disciplines including Geography Urban Studies Planning and Architecture to offer a complete and systematic examination of Georges Perec s geographies The diversity of readings and approaches will be of interest not only to Perec readers and fans but to students and researchers across these subjects The ^AOxford Handbook of Culture and Psychology Jaan Valsiner, 2013-12-15 Now in paperback The Oxford Handbook of Culture and Psychology is an internationally representative overview of the state of the art in cultural psychology Place, Space and Hermeneutics Bruce B. Janz, 2017-03-29 This book analyzes the hermeneutics of place raising questions about central issues such as textuality dialogue and play It discusses the central figures in the development of hermeneutics and place and surveys disciplines and areas in which a hermeneutic approach to place has been fruitful It covers the range of philosophical hermeneutic theory both within philosophy itself as well as from other disciplines In doing so the volume reflects the state of theorization on these issues and also looks forward to the implications and opportunities that exist Philosophical hermeneutics has fundamentally altered philosophy s approach to place Issues such as how we dwell in place how place is imagined created preserved and lost and how philosophy itself exists in place have become central While there is much research applying hermeneutics to place there is little which both reflects on that heritage and critically analyzes a hermeneutic approach to place This book fills that void by offering a sustained analysis of the central elements major figures and disciplinary applications of hermeneutics and place The Near North Ivan Vladislavić, 2024-02-19 The Near North is a vivid account of life in Johannesburg in times of crisis From the stony ridges of Langermann Kop in Kensington to the tree lined avenues of Houghton we follow the writer through the city s streets meeting its ghosts and journeying through time and often circumscribed space finding meaning in the everyday and incidental At once an echo of Ivan Vladislavi's award winning Portrait with Keys and an original work of intense acuity and quiet power The Near North is both intimate and expansive ranging from small domestic dramas to great public spectacles Wryly playful at times fiercely serious at others it is certain to move and delight all who accompany the writer through its pages

Processes of Creating Space Georg Rafailidis, Stephanie Davidson, 2016-05-26 Processes of Creating Space is a workbook for beginning designers that shows how to generate space with user experiences in mind It explains how to keenly perceive your world and seamlessly integrate architectural representation into your design process The book uses two main strategies blending the design process with material processes and media techniques and experiential typologies emphasising first hand experience of space Five highly experimental assignments explore the interwoven relationship between design process and design tools to help you learn when to incorporate writing architectural photography macro photography orthographic projection perspective projection hand drawing CAD mass modelling hot wire foam cutting 3D modelling multi part plaster mold making slip casting plaster casting paper casting monocoque shell structures working with latex concrete twine pulp full scale prototyping and more Illustrated with more than 350 color images the book also includes a section on material fabrication techniques and a glossary of technical terms An eResource containing downloadable essays stop motion videos sample schedules and supplementary information can be found here www.routledge.com/9781138903685

Lying in the Dark Room Emma Cheate, 2023-12-01 Lying in the Dark Room Architectures of British Maternity returns to and reflects on the spatial and architectural experience of childbirth through both a critical history of maternity spaces and a creative exploration of those we use today Where conventional architectural histories objectify buildings in parallel with the objectification of the maternal body the book in the mode of creative practice research presents a creative critical autotheory of the architecture of lying in It uses feminist subjective modes of thinking that travel across disciplines registers and arguments The book assesses the transformation of maternity spaces from the female bedchamber of seventeenth and eighteenth century marital homes to the lying in hospitals of the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries purposely built by man midwives to the late twentieth century spaces of home and the modern hospital maternity wing and the parallel shifts in maternal practices The spaces are not treated as mute or neutral backdrops to maternal history but as a series of vital entangled atmospheres materials practices and objects that are produced by and in turn produce particular social and political conditions gendered structures and experiences Moving across spaces systems protagonists and their subjectivities the book shows how hospital design and protocol altered ordinary birth at home and continues to shape maternal spatial experience today As such it will be of interest to a wide range of readers from architectural historians theoreticians designers and students to medical humanities historians to English Literature humanities and material studies scholars as well as those interested in creative critical writing
