Spectre Thin Nadine Sabih:

Spectre-Thin Nadine Sabih, 2015-12-06 A poetry book written and haphazardly illustrated by confused university student Nadine Sabih. It is a dream come true, an array of work compiled over the span of years worth of mental struggle and too much self-doubt. The content touches on both personal and imagined circumstances that melt into a kaleidoscope of what it must be like to live in a mind plagued by constant nagging thoughts. This book is tangible proof that struggle can be turned from a deadly thing into a work of beauty; it is more than possible to make good use of all the negative energy that plagues you in order to accomplish dreams that seem unreachable.
