Overhearing Film Dialogue Sarah Kozloff, 2000-03-30 Since the birth of cinema film has been lauded as a visual rather than a verbal medium this sentiment was epitomized by John Ford's assertion in 1964 that When a motion picture is at its best it is long on action and short on dialogue Little serious work has been done on the subject of film dialogue yet what characters say and how they say it has been crucial to our experience and understanding of every film since the coming of sound Through informative discussions of dozens of classic and contemporary films from Bringing Up Baby to Terms of Endearment from Stagecoach to Reservoir Dogs this lively book provides the first full length study of the use of dialogue in American film Sarah Kozloff shows why dialogue has been neglected in the analysis of narrative film and uncovers the essential contributions dialogue makes to a film's development and impact She uses narrative theory and drama theory to analyze the functions that dialogue typically serves in a film The second part of the book is a comprehensive discussion of the role and nature of dialogue in four film genres westerns screwball comedies gangster films and melodramas Focusing on topics such as class and ethnic dialects censorship and the effect of dramatic irony Kozloff provides an illuminating new perspective on film genres

Hindu-Christian Dialogue Mariasusai Dhavamony, 2021-11-15 Dialogue is an integral part of the mission of the Christian church The immensity of the ocean of Hindu doctrine and thought presents a significant obstacle to Christians who have been invited by the Roman Catholic Church to scrutinize the divine Mystery present in other religions Many fascinated by Hindu mysticism confuse permanent Hindu beliefs with certain current Western religious movements India's quest for the divine embodies multiple forms Its millennia old methods of meditation and varieties of asceticism often confuse those who are less inclined to experience of an inner spiritual nature This book attempts to address some of these difficulties and questions It is the author's belief that in the Hindu Christian encounter the Christian believer will also rediscover the originality and newness of the Christian revelation viz the intervention of God in the history of salvation whereby God reveals his salvific love in Jesus Christ Possessing expert knowledge of both Hinduism and Christianity the author approaches the Hindu Christian dialogue with sympathy and discernment
