The Indo-European Controversy Asya Pereltsvaig, Martin W. Lewis, 2015-04-30 This book challenges media celebrated evolutionary studies linking Indo European languages to Neolithic Anatolia instead defending traditional practices in historical linguistics Islam and Christianity Contrasted Ed Ward, 2021 My first exposure to Muslims was in 2005 in Morocco I enjoyed my visit and was surprised by the Berbers hospitality I was fascinated by the eagerness of Muslims to discuss God While sharing personal stories was important our conversations always concluded with talking about God Discussions about our faiths was the foremost topic of my conversations with Muslims Over the years I have compared the teachings of Islam with the Christian Scriptures I have found the narratives differing in detail and concepts conflicting in perspective These theological differences confirm that Islam and Christianity do not worship the same God For example the Quran teaches that Allah commanded angels to bow down to Adam at creation Satan refused and Allah banished him to the earth Qu 7 11 13 According to the Bible Yhwh would never command angels to bow down to man for only Yhwh is worthy of worship For an angel to bow down to man is idolatry I have observed many debates between Muslims and Christians Muslim debaters seldom stay on the agreed topic Instead they divert from the subject to ridicule and debase Christianity as foolishness I have found that while Muslims ask difficult questions of Christianity they never ask the same questions of Islam Islam and Christianity Contrasted will seek answers to those questions from the early Islamic sources and compare them with the teachings of the Bible The Quran early hadiths Islamic history and four established translations of the Bible will be consulted I hope that through Islam and Christianity Contrasted both Muslims and Christians will have a deeper understanding of one another's faith Equine Welfare in Clinical Practice Virginia Wensley Koch, 2024-08-29 Equine Welfare in Clinical Practice How and Why Behavior and Welfare Assessments Belong in Your Practice reviews the current psychological behavioral and welfare knowledge equine veterinarians should have and discusses how such knowledge may be incorporated into clinical practices It covers such topics as practical welfare assessment fear free practices and how horses learn both good and bad habits Each topic is intended to provide both practical and pertinent science based information for recent scholars seem to be led by a general belief that there were very few horses in Iron Age Israel and that Israel's chariotry was insignificant. The reason for this current sentiment is tied primarily to the academic controversy of the past 50 years over whether the 17 tripartite pillared buildings excavated at Megiddo in the early 20th century were in fact stables. Although the original excavators, archaeologists from the University of Chicago, designated these buildings as stables, a number of scholars and a few archaeologists later challenged this view and adopted alternative interpretations. After they reassessed the Megiddo stables as storehouses, marketplaces or barracks, the idea developed that there was no place for the horses to be kept and therefore there must have been few horses in Israel. The lack of stables, when added to the suggestion that Iron Age Israel could not have afforded to buy expensive horses and maintain an even more expensive chariotry, led to a dearth of horses in ancient Israel or so the logic goes that has permeated the literature. Cantrell's book attempts to dispel this notion. Too often today scholars ignore or diminish the role of the horse in battle. It is important to remember that ancient historians took for granted knowledge about horses that modern scholars have now forgotten or never knew. Cantrell's involvement with horses as a rider, competitor, trainer, breeder and importer includes equine experience ranging from competitive barrel racing to jumping and for the past 25 years dressage. The Horsemen of Israel relies on the author's knowledge of and experience with horses as well as her expertise in the field of ancient Near Eastern languages, literature and archaeology.

The Intimate Bond Brian Fagan, 2015-04-14. Animals and our ever-changing relationship with them have left an indelible mark on human history. From the dawn of our existence, animals and humans have been constantly redefining their relationship with one another, and entire civilizations have risen and fallen upon this curious bond we share with our fellow fauna. Brian Fagan unfolds this fascinating story from the first wolf who wandered into our prehistoric ancestors' camp and found companionship to empires built on the backs of horses, donkeys and camels to the industrial age when some animals became commodities, often brutally exploited, and others became pets, nurtured and pampered, sometimes to absurd extremes. Through an in-depth analysis of six truly transformative human-animal relationships, Fagan shows how our habits and our very way of life were considerably and irreversibly altered by our intimate bond with animals. Among other stories, Fagan explores how herding changed human behavior, how the humble donkey helped launch the process of globalization, and how the horse carried a hearty band of nomads across the world and toppled the emperor of China. With characteristic care and penetrating insight, Fagan reveals the profound influence that animals have exercised on human history and how, in fact, they often drove it.
