The importance of story development by Greg Mosse Writing for readers by Rachel McLean Creating a poetry comic by Chrissy Williams Ghosting writing other people's stories by Gillian Stern Romantic motifs by Sue Moorcroft How a publicist can help you by Hannah Hargrave Writing across forms by Rob Gittins Pitching your travel ideas by Jen Sim Benson The hybrid author by Simon McLeave The wealth of information is staggering The Times Let Us Play Harrison Browne, Rachel Browne, 2025-05-27 A crucial subversion of the misconceptions around the participation of gender diverse athletes advocating for the inclusion of trans and nonbinary athletes across all levels of sport The debate over the inclusion of gender diverse people in sport has become the latest battleground in the fight for basic human rights and equality Trans and nonbinary people around the world are facing physical harm and violence including death at unprecedented rates In Let Us Play trans athlete Harrison Browne and investigative journalist Rachel Browne reveal how the opposition towards gender diverse athletes is fueled by fear and a moral panic as opposed to facts around what makes a level playing field Interweaving Harrison's first hand experience as a transgender athlete with exclusive accounts from athletes coaches policymakers and advocates on the front lines Let Us Play dismantles the illusion that sports have ever been fair that trans athletes pose a threat to women's sports and that gender affirming healthcare for athletes should be prohibitive to play Calling for a reframing of the binaries from youth and high school levels all the way to the national leagues Browne and Browne offer a new path forward led by solutions proposed by gender diverse athletes themselves Routledge Handbook of Digital Technologies in Sport, Exercise and Physical Education Victoria A. Goodyear, Andrea Bundon, 2025-11-11 This is the first book to offer in depth analysis of the use of digital technologies in sport exercise and physical education their significance for the relationship between sport exercise and wider society and their impact on research in sport exercise and physical education Featuring the work of leading researchers from around the world and drawing on multidisciplinary perspectives including from sociology pedagogy psychology and related disciplines with a strong focus on qualitative social scientific approaches this book examines how individuals experience and engage with technology in the context of their physical practices Exploring key concepts and methodologies as well looking at how digital technologies are used in practice this book covers diverse topics including social media wearables apps video software AI and in the context of teaching coaching learning athlete safeguarding and more This book is essential reading for any student researcher teacher instructor or coach with an interest in sport exercise physical education psychology health and the relationships between technology and society Literature & Pedagogy Anthony Cordingley, 2025-04-01 Building upon the approach to reading literature pioneered by Bruce Gardiner at the University of Sydney for over four decades Literature and Pedagogy is devoted to the way that texts literary texts in particular seek to instruct us Bruce Gardiner has inspired generations of teachers and scholars in the field of literary criticism He stands for a scholarly ethos which is at risk of disappearing His distinctive academic career which was entirely devoted to research led teaching invites us to think about the relationships between literary studies and pedagogy It also invites us to ask what role a unique pedagogical style plays in the evolution of a discipline How does intergenerational transmission between teacher and student play out both within and beyond disciplinary boundaries This collection explores these questions while also documenting Gardiner s methods of scholarly as much as professional resistance to the neo liberalisation and neo conservatism of contemporary academic culture Contributors draw from inspiring encounters with him to reflect upon the rhetoric and motifs of pedagogy within literary works They put Gardiner s mode of reading into practice by offering new interpretations of pedagogical mechanisms employed within important literary works from the seventeenth century to the present and of cultural phenomena like colonial interpretations of the Australian lyrebird s song The volume also offers pieces inspired by Gardiner such as poetry art translation and creative non fiction as well as three unpublished lectures by Gardiner himself Techniques and methodologies of literary education are traditionally believed to offer students the keys with which to unlock the secrets of texts and foster their appreciation Literature and Pedagogy offers a new perspective showing teachers and students of both education and literature how literary works present their own methods for reflecting critically upon how and why we learn read and teach

Antisemitism in Football Emma Poulton, 2025-03-14 This book investigates the nature and prevalence of expressions of antisemitism within the context of football in Europe and beyond as well as attempts to challenge and combat this problematic phenomenon Drawing on empirical research the book presents a series of case studies of countries in which both football and antisemitism have been prominent including England Italy Germany Holland Poland Argentina and Hungary Each chapter explains the historical context of why antisemitism prevails in their country and their country s football culture considers those football clubs with a Jewish heritage and identity which tend to be the catalyst for antisemitic abuse and critically examines the measures being taken in that country to tackle antisemitism in football by organisations including governing bodies campaign groups supporter groups and football clubs themselves No other book has looked as deeply into this highly topical issue which continues to blight contemporary football Antisemitism in Football is important reading for anybody with an interest in football fan cultures the sociology of sport Jewish studies antisemitism and other forms of racism and discrimination in society
