Desert Fathers Jason Byassee, 2007-08-15 The desert fathers wanted to get away from a church co opted by empire and a Christian faith grown cold and listless They retreated to the desert to do battle against demons and against their own worst desires They had no intention of being famous yet ironically their Sayings have inspired millions of imitators over the centuries This guide is meant to accompany a reading of the Sayings of the Desert Fathers in hopes that readers with lives quite different than those third and fourth century dwellers of the Egyptian desert might nevertheless come to imitate their lives of poverty chastity and obedience and more importantly that readers might grow more imaginative and passionate in their following of the same Lord St. Benedict's Rule for Business Success Quentin R. Images, Iconoclasm, and the Carolingians Thomas F. X. Noble, 2012-02-25 In the year 726 C E the Byzantine emperor Leo III issued an edict declaring images to be idols forbidden by Exodus and ordering all such images in churches to be destroyed Thus commenced the first wave of Byzantine iconoclasm which ran its violent course until 787 when the underlying issues were temporarily resolved at the Second Council of Nicaea In 815 a second great wave of iconoclasm was set off only to end in 842 when the icons were restored to the churches of the East and the iconoclasts excommunicated The iconoclast controversies have long been understood as marking major fissures between the Western and Eastern churches Thomas F X

Noble reveals that the lines of division were not so clear. It is traditionally maintained that the Carolingians in the 790s did not understand the basic issues involved in the Byzantine dispute. Noble contends that there was in fact a significant Carolingian controversy about visual art and if its ties to Byzantine iconoclasm were tenuous they were also complex and deeply rooted in central concerns of the Carolingian court. Furthermore, he asserts that the Carolingians made distinctive and original contributions to the whole debate over religious art. Images, Iconoclasm and the Carolingians is the first book to provide a comprehensive study of the Western response to Byzantine iconoclasm. By comparing art texts with laws, letters, poems, and other sources, Noble reveals the power and magnitude of the key discourses of the Carolingian world during its most dynamic and creative decades. Claiming the Call to Preach Donna Giver-Johnston, 2021. Claiming the Call to Preach critically examines the dominant historical narrative that overtly or covertly has exercised its power to keep women from preaching. Donna Giver-Johnston here recovers the histories of four notable female preaching pioneers who affected change in the religious landscape of nineteenth-century America: Jarena Lee, Frances Willard, Louisa Woosley, and Florence Spearing Randolph. These women, diverse in religion, race, class, and culture, each told their story of call in distinctive ways that articulated strong and effective rhetorical arguments for ecclesiastical sanction to give them a place in the pulpit. The New Big Book of Christian Mysticism Carl McColman, 2023-08-29. This revised and expanded edition offers a big possibility: the hope of achieving real experiential union with God. The Christian of the future will be a mystic or will not exist. This word of warning from theologian Karl Rahner was uttered half a century ago, and today Christianity is indeed in crisis. Is mysticism necessary for the survival of Christianity? What exactly is Christian mysticism? How can it be relevant in our crisis-ridden world? Questions like these inspire The New Big Book of Christian Mysticism, a newly updated edition from beloved spiritual teacher and bestselling author Carl McColman. The New Big Book of Christian Mysticism serves as both introduction and practical instruction for a living contemplative practice today. In addition to the overview of mysticism, spiritual and prayer practices in mysticism, the various types of mysticism in Christian tradition, and influential mystics through the millennia, this second edition offers an embodied understanding of the mystic life with a more diverse range of voices and perspectives from Howard Thurman to Pauli Murray. It also includes new chapters and themes that address embodied mysticism, contemplation, and social justice, and the ongoing relevance of Jesus's message of radical equality and inclusivity. This bigger book introduces both Christians and non-Christians to the contemplative tradition within Christianity, a tradition that has often been marginalized or cloistered to the church's detriment. As a practice-oriented book, this is an invitation to embrace the mystical element within Christianity, a practice that can equip faithful persons with a joyful sense of divine intimacy, not just for personal benefit but as a foundation to a life of service and activism in the interest of justice. McColman's overview of mysticism shows how it has been practiced and lived through the centuries and will prove inspirational for today's seekers regardless of their faith tradition. At its heart, Christian mysticism is an ancient practice that incorporates meditation.

A Companion to Bernard of Clairvaux, 2011-03-21 Bernard of Clairvaux is perhaps the most controversial figure of Western Europe's vibrant twelfth century Unlike Abelard who is seen as a proponent of modern thinking Bernard is often relegated to the darkest corner of the Middle Ages Nothing is easy with Bernard but these fresh evaluations of him and their reviews of recent scholarship enable the reader to make a more balanced evaluation of the man his writings and his impact on his period Bernard emerges as a multifaceted figure who sought to reform monasticism and ended up becoming a saint with an appeal to virtually all classes in medieval society Bernard lives on today with the lay and monastic scholars who continue to find new layers of meaning in his writings Contributors include Christopher Holdsworth Michael Casey James France Diane Reilly John Sommerfeldt Mette B Bruun Burcht Pranger Chrysogonus Waddell E Rozanne Elder and Brian Patrick McGuire
