Write with Fire Charles Allen Gramlich, 2009-07-01 This guide to writing fiction is divided into three sections Part One deals with the mechanics of writing How do you get ideas and shepherd them through the writing and editing process into finished and publishable form Where do you look for markets Part Two consists of more general articles about writing and writers Part Three includes pieces that are more personal to the author's own history as a writer A bibliography of suggested reading completes the guide Page 4 of cover

'My Mother was the Earth, My Father was the Sky' Nadia Majid, 2010 This study brings together three closely related aspects of Maori literature myth memory and identity It examines selected novels by Witi Ihimaera and Patricia Grace in order to trace an ever developing Maori identity that has changed considerably over three decades of the Maori novel This book demonstrates that an investigation of the construction of identity in literature benefits from a close look at the importance of Maori mythology as well as associated cultural and individual memories Indicating that Maori fiction has become what Homi Bhabha terms a third space this book verifies the links between novel myth and memory with the help of existing research in these areas in order to assess their importance for the reinterpretation of identity The Maori novels that depict situations reflecting current issues are viewed as an experimental playground in which authors can explore a variety of solutions to tribal societal and political issues This study establishes the early novels as reinterpretations of the past and guides to the future and characterises the more recent novels as representing a move towards empowerment and pioneering that has not yet come to a conclusion

Myth in the Modern Novel Liisa Steinby, 2023-03-20 Myth in the Modern Novel Imagining the Absolute posits a twofold thesis First although Modernity is regarded as an era dominated by science and rational thought it has in fact not relinquished the hold of myth a more primitive form of thought which is difficult to reconcile with modern rationality Second some of the most important statements as to the reconcilability of myth and Modernity are found in the work of certain prominent novelists This book offers a close examination of the work of eleven writers from the late eighteenth century to the beginning of the twenty first representing German French American Czech and Swedish literature The analyses of individual novels reveal a variety of intriguing views of myth in Modernity and offer an insight into the modernizing transformations myth has undergone when applied in the modern novel The study shows the presence of the subconscious the mythic layer in modern western culture and how this has been dealt with in novelistic literature

Posthuman Becoming Narratives in Contemporary Anglophone Science Fiction Zhang Na, 2022-09-02 This book explores the integration of narratology with posthumanism by examining a large scope of narratives in science fiction over nearly half a century in a range of major Anglophone countries Based on the rhizome of posthumanism analysis of the posthuman narrative embodiments in selected contemporary Anglophone science fiction it investigates Ursula K Le Guin's The Left Hand of Darkness 1969 Ian Watson's The Jonah Kit 1975 Iain Banks The Bridge 1986 and Richard Powers Galatea 2 2 1995 as exemplifying various aspects of posthuman becoming other The book shows that in the reactive logic of nihilism the becoming other posthuman rather than posing a threat proves to be the companion and savior of human beings whose apocalyptic sacrifice brings back the all too human humanity to the chaotic world of presence

Snake Sisters and Ghost Daughters Cathy Yue Wang, 2023-08-29 Politics and paradigm shifts underlying contemporary retellings of fantastic traditional Chinese tales Contemporary Chinese film and literature often draw on time honored fantastical texts and tales which were founded in the milieu of patriarchy parental authority heteronormativity nationalism and anthropocentrism Author Cathy Yue Wang examines the processes by which modern authors and filmmakers reshape these traditional tales to develop new narratives that interrogate the ingrained patriarchal paradigm Through a rigorous analysis Wang delineates changes in both content and narrative that allow contemporary interpretations to reimagine the gender politics and contexts of the tales retold With a broad transmedia approach and a nuanced understanding of intertextuality this work contributes to the ongoing negotiation in academic and popular discourse between past and present traditional and contemporary and text and reality in a globalized and postmodern world Snake Sisters and Ghost Daughters offers an engaging interdisciplinary investigation of issues at the heart of these traditional tales such as gender and status hierarchy marriage and family life and in group out group distinction Beyond the content of these individual stories Wang ties these narratives together across time using cognitive literary criticism especially affective narratology to shed new light on the adaptation of literary and cultural texts and their sociopolitical contexts
