Horror Story and Cult Television Richard Hand, Mark O'Thomas, 2023-11-14 Over the course of ten seasons since 2011 the television series American Horror Story AHS created by Ryan Murphy and Brad Falchuk has continued to push the boundaries of the televisual form in new and exciting ways Emerging in a context which has seen a boom in popularity for horror series on television AHS has distinguished itself from its rivals such as The Walking Dead Bates Motel or Penny Dreadful through its diverse strategies and storylines which have seen it explore archetypal narratives of horror culture as well as engage with real historical events Utilising a repertory company model for its casting the show has challenged issues around contemporary politics heteronormativity violence on the screen and disability to name but a few This new collection of essays approaches the AHS anthology series from a variety of critical perspectives within the broader field of television studies and its transections with other disciplines Working with Spirit Jo Thobeka Wreford, 2008-05-01 In the current model of health dispensation in South Africa there are two major paradigms the spirit inspired tradition of izangoma sinyanga and biomedicine These operate at best in parallel but more often than not are at odds with one another This book based on the author's personal experience as a practitioner of traditional African medicine considers the effects of the absence of spirit in biomedicine on collaborative relationships Given the unprecedented challenge of the HIV AIDS epidemic in the country the author suggests that more cooperation is vital Taking a critical look at the role of anthropology in this endeavor she proposes the development of a language of spirit by means of which the spirit inspired aetiology of izangoma sinyanga may be made comprehensible to academic scientists and applicable to medical interventions The author discusses white izangoma in the context of current debates on healing and hybridity and insists that there exists a powerful role for izangoma in the realm of societal healing Above all the book constitutes a start in what the author hopes will develop into an ongoing intellectual conversation between traditional African healing academe and biomedicine in South Africa Witches,

Scientists, Philosophers: Essays and Lectures Robert E. Butts, 2013-03-09 Robert E Butts 1928 1997 was a philosopher and historian of science whose central concerns were the distinction between the rational and the irrational He viewed scientific rationality as our major defence against the various conditions that encourage witch hunts and similar outbursts of irrationality with all their attendant pain and terror Butts saw himself as a pragmatic realist combining what he took to be the best aspects of logical empiricism with a historically informed pragmatism deeply appreciative of the methods of science trying to describe a kind of rationality essential in the struggle to preserve human values This volume gathers previously unpublished essays and lectures with some previously published thematically related essays It includes essays and lectures on philosophical aspects of the European witch hunt on scientific rationality and methodology and on the relationships between science and philosophy exhibited in the writings of such historically significant figures as Leibniz D Alembert Hume Kant Carnap and Kuhn Fashion Media Djurdja Bartlett, Shaun Cole, Agnès Rocamora, 2013-12-19 The fashion media is in the midst of deep social and technological change Including a broad range of case studies from fashion plates to fashion films and from fashion magazines to fashion blogs this ground breaking book provides an up to date examination of the role and significance of this field Winner of the PCA ACA Ray and Pat Browne Award for Best Edited Collection Fashion Media includes chapters written by international scholars covering topics from historic magazine cultures and contemporary digital innovations to art and film exploring themes such as gender ethnicity design taste and authorship Highlighting the complexity of processes that bind design design technology society and identity together Fashion Media will be of be essential reading for students of fashion studies cultural studies visual culture studies design history communications and art and design practice and theory
