Inkbound Realms: Traversing the Landscapes of English Literature 2025 ANINDRA KUMAR BISWAS, DR. APARAJITA SHUKLA, DR NEELAM SHUKLA, DR. REVANT GAUTAM, PREFACE Literature has always been one of humanity's most enduring ways of making sense of the world From the rhythm of ancient oral storytelling to the fluid prose of contemporary novels the written word carries with it the weight of history memory and imagination Inkbound Realms Traversing the Landscapes of English Literature was conceived as an attempt to bring these diverse voices together in one journey illuminating the traditions transformations and tensions that have shaped English literature across the centuries This book is not meant to be an encyclopaedic record nor a rigid survey of authors and dates Instead it aims to capture the living spirit of literature the way it reflects the concerns of its age while also transcending them Each chapter is crafted to situate texts within their cultural and historical contexts while offering readers concrete examples and case studies that bring the material to life Whether one encounters Chaucer's humour Shakespeare's depth Dickens's social vision or Woolf's experimental prose the intention is to show how these works remain relevant today The work is also guided by an inclusive

spirit English literature is no longer the sole property of Britain it is a global phenomenon shaped by writers from Asia Africa the Americas and beyond This book embraces that plurality tracing how English has become a shared language of storytelling capable of expressing local identities while also speaking to universal human experiences I hope that students will find in these chapters a helpful companion to their studies that scholars will appreciate the synthesis of tradition and contemporary insight and that general readers will discover or rediscover the joy of reading across ages and genres More than anything my aspiration is that this book encourages readers to see literature not as a closed canon but as a set of open landscapes realms bound in ink yet constantly expanding through new voices technologies and cultural encounters As you embark on this journey through the inkbound realms may you not only gain knowledge of English literature but also a renewed sense of its beauty power and capacity to connect us across time and place Authors Anindra Kumar Biswas Dr Aparajita Shukla Dr Neelam Shukla Dr Revant Gautam Heroines of the Postmodern and their Worlds in Contemporary Historical Fiction Alicja Bemben, Michael Joseph, 2025-09-29 This volume focuses on historical fiction written by and for women approximately in the last 30 years and across the entire globe It comprises three parts Part 1 draws on the theme of the inner life and experiences of the female historical figure Part 2 is concerned with genre bending that fuels the construction of the vast majority of story worlds within the genre and Part 3 with the idea of unusual angles that the historical fiction storytelling employs Children's Picture Books and Contemporary Egyptian Society Yasmine Motawwy, 2025-02-25 A social and political history of two decades of Egyptian neoliberalism through children s picture books published in Egypt in the post 2000 era Children s picture books are some of the most transparently ideological materials available to parents and educators and as cultural objects they are an expression of the zeitgeist of a particular era They reveal much about the hopes values and aspirations of the society that produces them as well as that society s vision of its place in the wider world at large Children s Picture Books and Contemporary Egyptian Society examines a new wave of Egyptian picture books that was published in the current century to see how these books responded to larger societal trends and transformations in Egypt as well as to explore the ideologies that lie behind them Yasmine Motawwy argues that a host of factors including the growth of gated communities and international schooling the proliferation of lucrative literary awards returning Gulf migrants television dramas and nationwide reading advocacy initiatives helped give rise to a new kind of children s picture book in Egypt Motawwy focuses on three clusters of selected picture books to investigate the extent to which these books reproduce hegemonic discourses or alternatively open up new horizons of childhood agency and societal transformation The first cluster includes books that directly socialize the child by showing them how things are done in both the domestic sphere and the increasing globalized spaces that children frequent with their families The second cluster aims at reframing cultural notions around femininity through the retelling of folk and fairy tales while the third cluster addresses children s abilities to assess the impact of their actions on their environment and invites them to examine their personal
