

The background image is a dark, atmospheric scene of a post-apocalyptic city. In the foreground, a rusted, abandoned car is parked on the left. A lone figure stands in the middle ground, looking down at a small object on the ground. The background shows a street lined with dilapidated buildings under a cloudy, overcast sky.

The water is contaminated and strips those infected of their senses until they become nothing but a ravenous shell of a human. Murderous gangs roam the land, cannibals prey on the weak, and those still alive struggle to stay alive. Lexa is 16 years old, and her most prized possession is a dagger her father left to her before he and her mother disappeared in search of fresh water. Now Lexa and her little sister live in a camp where all seems well until their water source is compromised. Can Lexa save her camp from a deadly disaster? Or will she have to bury the people who helped raise her? Lexa learns all too quickly about life, death, and the pursuit of survival. A Taste of Moreillon, 2023-12-01 This anthology comprises of interviews with contemporary South African authors offering vignettes of their lives and summaries of their works. In curating this book, Danyela Demir and Olivier Moreillon step beyond pure literary theory and analysis. They welcome the authors to speak and assess the literary panorama in which they live and co-create. However, Demir and Moreillon also trace concepts and terms that describe the current South African literature, such as post-transitional literature and literature beyond 2000. By adopting a world literary approach to post-apartheid literature, this book contributes to debates on contemporary South African writing. In addition, Tracing the Post Apartheid Novel Beyond 2000 seeks to raise awareness of the imbalance in both critical and public attention between literary big names such as André P. Brink, J. M. Coetzee, Nadine Gordimer, and Zakes Mda, who are popular worldwide, and the younger and newer generation of South African writers who go largely unnoticed.
