Post Apocalyptic Story Hardcover:

Contemporary Women's Post-Apocalyptic Fiction Susan Watkins, 2020-02-29 This book examines how contemporary women novelists have successfully transformed and rewritten the conventions of post apocalyptic fiction Since the dawn of the new millennium there has been an outpouring of writing that depicts the end of the world as we know it and women writers are no exception to this trend However the book argues that their fiction is distinctive Contemporary women's work in this genre avoids conservatism a nostalgic mourning for the past and the focus on restoring what has been lost aspects key to much male authored apocalyptic fiction Instead contemporary women writers show readers the ways in which patriarchy and neo colonialism are intrinsically implicated in the disasters they envision and offer qualified hope for a new beginning for society culture and literature after an imagined apocalyptic event Exploring science nature and matter the posthuman body the maternal imaginary time narrative and history literature and the word and the post secular the book covers a wide variety of writers and addresses issues of nationality race and ethnicity as well as gender and sexuality Forgotten Fears

Hardback edition Michael Bray, 2015-06-27 Forgotten Fears is a collection of stories many of which have either never been released before and others which were kindle exclusive titles Most of these tales come from the Dark Corners and Funhouse writing sessions whilst others were a part of the previously kindle only Taste of Fear series Along with these the novella something in the Dark opens this novel sized collection of stories Brought together for the first time and fully tweaked and re edited to bring them up to standard this is the first time print editions of these stories will be made available alongside the usual kindle format After Paul Meloche, 2024-09-06 As 2032 comes to a close Max Poirier and Annie Dekker are enjoying a vacation in Lofoten Norway Moments before Max proposes to Annie a nuclear explosion rocks Bod almost a hundred kilometres away across the sea They soon learn that Bod is not an isolated incident as they try to protect themselves from nuclear fallout they learn that dozens of cities around the world have been hit with nuclear weapons and that nuclear war is imminent if not already completely underway Meanwhile at a small farm in the Netherlands the retired couple Magda and Jan Bouwman are just as devastated by a nearby nuclear attack Their farm provides them with a modicum of food and safety but with a dearth of medication necessary for Magda's health and a lack of information regarding their adult children's survival they decide to brave the unknown Max and Annie grow closer in despair weathering hopelessness and the seemingly endless death around them as they trek south on Lofoten to find help that may never come Magda and Jan find themselves drifting apart as their journey reminds them of their family past regrets and a secret they both know Jan has been keeping from Magda a secret that might finally be their undoing After A Cautionary Tale is a haunting novel about humans at their core flawed yet resilient and hopeful Postapocalyptic Fiction and the Social Contract Claire P. Curtis, 2010-07-17

Postapocalyptic Fiction and the Social Contract We'll Not Go Home Again provides a framework for our fascination with the apocalyptic events The popular appeal of the end of the world genre is clear in movies novels and television shows Even our political debates over global warming nuclear threats and pandemic disease reflect a concern about the possibility of such events This popular fascination is really a fascination with survival how can we come out alive And what would we do next The end of the world is not about species death but about beginning again This book uses postapocalyptic fiction as a terrain for thinking about the state of nature the hypothetical fiction that is the driving force behind the social contract The first half of the book examines novels that tell the story of the move from the state of nature to civil society through a Hobbesian a Lockean or a Rousseauian lens including Lucifer s Hammer by Larry Niven and Jerry Pournelle Alas Babylon by Pat Frank Malevil by Robert Merle and Into the Forest by Jean Hegland The latter half of the book examines Octavia Butler s postapocalyptic Parable series in which a new kind of social contract emerges one built on the fact of human dependence and vulnerability
