Surfaces Joseph A. Amato, 2013-05-08 In this book that interweaves history anthropology epistemology and aesthetics the author traces the human relationship with surfaces from human evolution up to the contemporary world

Surface and Deep Histories Anuradha Chatterjee, 2014-06-26 Surface in architecture has had a deeper and a more pervasive presence in the practice and theory of the discipline than is commonly supposed Orientations to the surface emerge collapse and reappear sustaining it as a legitimate theoretical and artefactual entity despite the twentieth century disciplinary definition of architecture as space structure and function Even though surface is defended for its pervasiveness Kurt Forster its function as a theoretical motif with generative power Andrew Benjamin and in constituting the operative principles of modern architecture as a visual phenomenon Mark Wigley it occupies the interstice or the space of the unconscious within architectural discourse from where it defends its legitimacy as architecturally valuable or functional as opposed to merely visually pleasurable Surface and Deep Histories positions surface within the scholarship of critical theory and design based approaches and invites academics and designers and art and architectural historians based in Australia to consider the uses figurations scales and typologies of surfaces The collection choreographs contributions that focus on a variety of topics such as montage and construction of colonial modernity and visual culture Molly Duggins wallpaper rational space and femininity Anna Daly the inter constituted nature of bodies clothes and cities Stella North the reconstruction of the urban surface through a true integration of information and topology M Hank Haesler James Fergusson's theory of ornament Peter Kohane traditional and new verandahs in Australia Chris Brisbin contradictory effects of surface in Green architecture debates Flavia Marcello and Ian Woodcock and the thickness of thin curtain walls in contemporary Australian architecture Anuradha Chatterjee Surface and Deep Histories shows that surface is not thin spatially or conceptually It demonstrates that the practice of surface is simultaneously superficial and pervasive symbol and space meaningful and functional static and transitory and object and envelope

FABRIC[ated] Tolya Stonorov, 2023-07-10 FABRIC ated examines fabric as a catalyst for innovation reflection change and transformation in architecture This book explores the ways in which research and development of fabric can and historically has influenced and revolutionized architecture teaching and design Responsive flexible impermanent fluid and adaptive fabric interacts with and influences architecture offering innovative solutions and increased material responsibility Foundation and theory chapters establish clear precedent and futures for fabric's position in architectural discourse The case study section examines 14 international projects through three different threads Veiling

Compression and Tension Case studies include a diverse range of projects from the HiLo unit at Nest and CAST's fabric formed concrete projects to a discussion of the impact of fabric on SO IL and Kennedy Violich Architect's professional work demonstrating new and fresh methods for addressing sustainability and social justice through the use of fabric in architecture Through the work of the many authors of this book we see fabric as drape skin veil mold concept and inspiration Fabric in its broadest definition is an important and innovative material in the development of socially conscious architecture Offering readers pedagogical and practical models for international projects highlighting fabric's use in architecture this book will appeal to the novice and the expert architecture students and practitioners alike

Graphic Design, Referenced

Bryony Gomez Palacio, Armin Vit, 2012 From Caslon and Carson from Gutenberg to Greiman from Lascaux to letterpress and from Postmodernism to pixel among other entries this title will provide all the necessary information and visual cues that designers need to know in order to become empowered work efficiently and knowingly and survive in a design conversation with peers

Finding Augusta Heidi Rae Cooley, 2014-03-04 Finding Augusta breaks new ground revising how media studies interpret the relationship between our bodies and technology This is a challenging exploration of how for both good and ill the sudden ubiquity of mobile devices GPS systems haptic technologies and other forms of media alter individuals experience of their bodies and shape the social collective The author succeeds in problematizing the most salient fact of contemporary mobile media technologies namely that they have become like highways and plumbing an infrastructure that regulates habit Audacious in its originality Finding Augusta will be of great interest to art and media scholars alike

Dwell, 2002-06 At Dwell we're staging a minor revolution We think that it's possible to live in a house or apartment by a bold modern architect to own furniture and products that are exceptionally well designed and still be a regular human being We think that good design is an integral part of real life And that real life has been conspicuous by its absence in most design and architecture magazines

Smart Design Philip Breedon, 2012-04-11 Good product designs merge materials technology and hardware into a unified user experience one where the technology recedes into the background and people benefit from the capabilities and experiences available By focusing on functional gain critical awareness and emotive connection even the most multifaceted and complex technology can be made to feel straightforward and become an integral part of daily life Researchers designers and developers must understand how to progress or appropriate the right technical and human knowledge to inform their innovations The 1st International Smart Design conference provides a timely forum and brings together researchers and practitioners to discuss issues identify challenges and future directions and share their R D findings and experiences in the areas of design materials and technology This proceedings of the 1st Smart Design conference held at Nottingham Trent University in November 2011 includes summaries of the talks given on topics ranging from intelligent textiles design to pharmaceutical packaging to the impact of social and emotional factors on design choices with the aim of informing and inspiring future application and development of smart design

Metaphors in Architecture and Urbanism

Andri Gerber, Brent Patterson, 2014-03-15 Architecture and urbanism seem to be weak disciplines constantly struggling for a better understanding of their nature and disciplinary borders The huge amount of metaphors appearing in the discourse of both not only reference to their creative nature but also indicate their weakness and the missing piece strengthening their own understanding a definition of space for architecture and of city for urbanism But using metaphors in this field implies a problem though metaphors achieve to bring opposites together there remains the question how literal they can actually become in order to relate to these subjects properly In this volume several authors from various fields using different approaches discuss this question
