Small Stories Interaction And Identities Studies In Narrative:

Small Stories, Interaction and Identities Alexandra Georgakopoulou, 2007 Narrative research is frequently described as a diverse enterprise yet the kinds of narrative data that it bases itself on present a striking consensus they tend to be autobiographical and elicited in interviews This book sets out to carve out a space alongside this narrative canon for stories that have not made it to the mainstream of narrative and identity analysis yet they abound as well as being crucial sites of subjectivity in everyday interactional contexts By labelling those stories as small the book emphasizes their distinctiveness both interactionally and as an antidote to the tradition of grand narratives research Drawing primarily on the audio recorded small stories of a group of female adolescents that was studied ethnographically in a town in Greece the book follows a language focused and practice based approach in order to provide fresh answers and perspectives on some of the perennial questions of narrative analysis How can we reconceptualize the mainstay concepts of tellership structure and evaluation in small stories How do the participants telling identities connect with their larger social identities Finally what does the project of storying self and other mean in small stories and how can it be best explored The Handbook of Narrative Analysis Anna De Fina, Alexandra Georgakopoulou, 2019-02-12 Featuring contributions from leading scholars in the field The Handbook of Narrative Analysis is the first comprehensive collection of sociolinguistic scholarship on narrative analysis to be published Organized thematically to provide an accessible guide for how to engage with narrative without prescribing a rigid analytic framework Represents established modes of narrative analysis juxtaposed with innovative new methods for conducting narrative research Includes coverage of the latest advances in narrative analysis from work on social media to small stories research Introduces and exemplifies a practice based approach to narrative analysis that separates narrative from text so as to broaden the field beyond the printed page Selves and Identities in Narrative and Discourse Michael G. W. Bamberg, Anna De Fina, Deborah Schiffrin, 2007 The different traditions that have inspired the contributors to this volume can be divided along three different orientations one that is rooted predominantly in sociolinguistics a second that is ethnomethodologically informed and a third that came in the wake of narrative interview research All three share a commitment to view self and identity not as essential properties of the person but as constituted in discursive practices and particularly in narrative Moreover since self and identity are held to be phenomena that are contextually and continually generated they are defined and viewed in the plural as selves and identities In the attempt of moving closer toward a process oriented approach to the formation of selves and identities this volume sets the stage for future discussions of the role of narrative and discourse in this generation process and for how a close analysis of these processes can advance an understanding of the world around us and within this world of identities and selves Not Ever Absent: Storytelling in Arts, Culture and Identity Formation, 2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2015 Storytelling has always played a central role in the formation of cultures and communities All cultures define themselves and their place in the world through their stories Similarly our identities are largely constructed as narratives and it is with the aid of storytelling that we manage to conceive of ourselves as meaningful wholes Thus storytelling is not ever absent it is to be found in literature social life in the places we visit and the buildings we live in This volume presents storytelling in various appearances from ancient myths and oral history to transmedia narratives and digital stories Different forms of narrative are analysed as is the use of storytelling as a method for e g counselling education and research Throughout twenty five chapters a compelling overview of recent research on the topic is provided both stressing the omnipresence of storytelling and exploring what storytelling is and isn't

Small Stories Research Alex Georgakopoulou, Korina Giaxoglou, Sylvie Patron, 2023-07-31 This collection showcases the diversity and disciplinary breadth of small stories research highlighting the growing critical mass of scholarship on small stories and its reach beyond discourse and sociolinguistic perspectives The volume both takes stock of and seeks to advance the development of small stories research by Alexandra Georgakopoulou and Michael Bamberg as a counterpoint to conventional models in narrative studies one which has accounted for atypical yet salient activities in everyday life such as fragmentation and open endedness anchoring onto the present and co constructive dimensions in stories and identities With data from different languages and contexts emphasis is placed on the analytical aspects of the paradigm toward producing models for the analysis of structures textual and interactional choices and genres of small stories Chapters on the role and commodification of small stories in digital environments reflect on the paradigm's recent extension to the analysis of social media communication This book will appeal to scholars interested in narrative inquiry and narrative analysis in such fields as sociolinguistics literary studies communication studies and biographical studies

Quantified Storytelling Alex Georgakopoulou, Stefan Iversen, Carsten Stage, 2020-09-19 This book interrogates the role of quantification in stories on social media how do visible numbers e g of views shares likes and invisible algorithmic measurements shape the stories we post and engage with The links of quantification with stories have not been explored sufficiently in storytelling research or in social media studies despite the fact that platforms have been integrating sophisticated metrics into developing facilities for sharing stories with a massive appeal to ordinary users influencers and businesses alike With case studies from Instagram Reddit and Snapchat the authors show how three types of metrics namely content metrics interface metrics and algorithmic metrics affect the ways in which cancer patients share their experiences the circulation of specific stories that mobilize counter publics and the design of stories as facilities on platforms The analyses document how numbers structure elements in stories indicate and produce engagement and become resources for the tellers self presentation This book will be of interest to students and scholars working in the fields of narrative and social media studies including narratology biography studies digital storytelling life writing narrative psychology sociological approaches to narrative discourse and sociolinguistic perspectives The Wiley Handbook of Theoretical and Philosophical Psychology Jack Martin,Jeff Sugarman,Kathleen L.
