

A movie poster for 'Alien Invasion'. The top half features a large, dark, metallic alien head with a menacing, ribbed texture, its mouth open as if screaming or roaring. Below the head, a man with long, light brown hair is shown in a state of intense distress, his eyes squeezed shut and his mouth open in a scream. He is holding his hands to his ears. The background is a misty, dark landscape with silhouettes of trees and a fence. The overall tone is dark and ominous.

Language, Science and Popular Fiction in the Victorian Fin-de-siècle Christine Ferguson, 2006 Christine Ferguson's timely study is the first comprehensive examination of the importance of language in forming a crucial nexus among popular fiction, biology and philology at the Victorian fin de siècle. Ferguson demonstrates how Darwinian accounts of primitive and animal language were co-opted into wider cultural debates about the apparent brutality of popular fiction and shows how popular novelists used their fantastic narratives to radically reformulate the relationships among language, thought and progress that underwrote much of the contemporary prejudice against mass literary taste.
