Textbook of Psychoanalysis Glen O. Gabbard, Bonnie E. Litowitz, Paul Williams, 2012-09-24 The second edition of this groundbreaking text represents a complete departure from the structure and format of its predecessor Though still exhaustive in scope and designed to provide a knowledge base for a broad audience from the beginning student to the seasoned analyst or academician this revision emphasizes the interdisciplinary nature of psychoanalytic thought and boldly focuses on current American psychoanalysis in all its conceptual and clinical diversity This approach reflects the perspective of the two new co editors whose backgrounds in linguistics and social anthropology inform and enrich their clinical practice and the six new section editors who themselves reflect the diversity of backgrounds and thinking in contemporary American psychoanalysis The book begins with Freud and his circle and the origins of psychoanalysis and goes on to explore its development in the post Freud era This general introduction orients the reader and helps to contextualize the six sections that follow The most important tenets of psychoanalysis are defined and described in the Core Concepts section including theories of motivation unconscious processes transference and countertransference defense and resistance and gender and sexuality These eight chapters constitute an excellent introduction to the field of psychoanalysis The Schools of Thought section features chapters on the most influential theories from object relations to self psychology to attachment theory and relational psychoanalysis and includes the contributions of Klein and Bion and of Lacan Rather than making developmental theory a separate section as in the last edition developmental themes now permeate the Schools of Thought section and illuminate other theories and topics throughout the edition Taking a more clinical turn the Treatment and Technique section addresses critical subjects such as transference and countertransference theories of therapeutic action process interpretation and resistance termination and reanalysis combined psychoanalysis and psychopharmacotherapy child analysis ethics and the relationship between psychoanalysis and psychodynamic psychotherapy A substantive utterly current and meticulously referenced section on

Impious Fidelity Suzanne Stewart-Steinberg, 2012-03-15 In Impious Fidelity Suzanne Stewart Steinberg investigates the legacy of Anna Freud at the intersection between psychoanalysis as a mode of thinking and theorizing and its existence as a political entity Stewart Steinberg argues that because Anna Freud inherited and guided her father's psychoanalytic project as an institution analysis of her thought is critical to our understanding of the relationship between the psychoanalytic and the political This is particularly the case given that many psychoanalysts and historians of psychiatry charge that Anna Freud's emphasis on defending the supremacy of the ego against unconscious drives betrayed her father's work Are the unconscious and the psychoanalytic project itself at odds with the stable ego deemed necessary to a democratic politics Hannah Arendt famously and influentially argued that they are But Stewart Steinberg maintains that Anna Freud's critics particularly disciples of Melanie Klein have simplified her thought and misconstrued her legacy Stewart Steinberg looks at Anna Freud's work with wartime orphans seeing that they developed subjectivity not by vertical through the father but by lateral social ties This led Anna Freud to revise her father's emphasis on Oedipal sexuality and to posit a revision of psychoanalysis that renders it compatible with democratic theory and practice Stewart Steinberg gives us an Anna Freud who betrays the father even as she protects his legacy and continues his work in a new key

Difference and Disavowal

Alan Bass, 2000 Difference and Disavowal is a major rethinking of a central tenet of Freudian psychoanalysis the repression theory It centers on fundamental issues in practice and theory beginning with a central conundrum for clinical psychoanalysis how to understand apparently analyzable patients who resist the essential therapeutic measure of analysis interpretation The author finds the answer in a revision and expansion of Freud's theory of fetishism Freud introduced the defense mechanism of disavowal in order to understand what he called the registration and repudiation of reality in fetishism However his understanding of the reality disavowed in fetishism is self contradictory The contradiction in Freud's argument can be resolved by understanding disavowal in terms of registration and repudiation of difference The patients who resist interpretation register and repudiate the differentiating process implicit in every interpretation The problem of resistance to interpretation expands the basic conception of the unconscious to include registration and repudiation of differentiating processive reality Freud's conception of an unconscious force that simultaneously differentiates binds and raises tension levels Eros demands integration with the theory of disavowal This integration produces a theory of an inevitable trauma an inevitable registration and repudiation of difference as an essential element in psychoanalytic theories of mind psychopathology and treatment At the end of his life Freud himself was beginning to rethink repression as the cornerstone of his work He was beginning to see disavowal as the foundation of defensive process Once disavowal is understood in relation to difference and Eros one has a major tool with which to rethink the development of Freudian psychoanalysis from its earliest days to the present The author shows how other analysts such as Ferenczi Abraham Klein Loewald and Winnicott have unwittingly but crucially contributed to the problem of resistance to interpretation The Psychoanalytic Study of Society, V. 12 L. Bryce Boyer, Simon A. Grolnick, 2022-01-26 Volume 12 includes chapters on the hermeneutics of structuralism and psychoanalysis H van Velzen prophetic initiation in Israel and Judah D Merkur the cult phenomenon and the paranoid process W Meissner the ego and adaptation P Parin male adolescent initiation rituals L Rosen gender identity in a New Guinea people E Foulks and the film Cabaret S Bauer
