Women's Club Football in Brazil and Colombia Mark Biram, 2024-01-15 The first women's football book on Latin America centring the perspectives of players brings rare interview material that cuts through the clichés to uncover the lived reality of women footballers It includes the first large scale survey of South American women footballers views into dialogue with institutional and media perspectives The early chapters consider the backdrop Latin American women footballers operate in a media and institutional panorama that privileges a heteronormative athletic femininity whilst ensuring women's football is never portrayed as anything other than an inferior version of the hegemonic men's game Following this drawing on nine months of ethnographic fieldwork in which 33 semi structured interviews were carried out with players and institutional figures this pioneering book foregrounds the lived reality of women's football in three strategic locations Firstly three months were spent in the Amazon region of Brazil where Esporte Clube Iranduba provides a fascinating alternative model for the growth of women's football. This is contrasted with Santos FC where women's football tends to be constantly overshadowed by the presence of banal patriarchy and finally with another fleeting glimpse of how another model is possible at Atlético Huila of Colombia the surprise winner of the women's Copa Libertadores in 2018.

What Happened to Serie A Steven G. Mandis, 2018-10-04 In the 1980s and 1990s Serie A was known as Il campionato pi bello del mondo the most beautiful championship in the world and had the highest match attendances in Europe. The stadiums were not only full of people but full of colour, flags, songs and rituals. Italy hosted World Cup 1990 and the stadium stars on show in Serie A became iconic. Across a ten year period from 1989 to 1999 a remarkable 10 different Serie A clubs occupied nearly half the places in the finals of the Champions League and Europa Cup. They were dominant. But then in the 2000s they began to fall behind and despite the Azzurri winning the World Cup in 2006 and Inter Milan winning the Champions League in 2010 Italian football was on a downwards trajectory that saw the national team fail to qualify for the 2018 World Cup their first absence from the tournament since 1958. What happened and why? In this extraordinary book Steven G. Mandis investigates. Given unprecedented behind-the-scenes access to Italian clubs and key decision makers and players, Mandis is the first outside researcher to rigorously analyse both the on-the-pitch and business aspects of a club and league. What he learns is completely unexpected and challenges popular explanations and conventional wisdom.

Social Media in Trinidad Jolynna Sinanan,2017-11-21 Drawing on 15 months of ethnographic research in one of the most under developed regions in the Caribbean island of Trinidad this book describes the uses and consequences of social media for its residents Jolynna Sinanan argues that this semi urban town is a place in between somewhere city dwellers look down on and villagers look up to The complex identity of the town is expressed through uses of social media with significant results for understanding social media more generally Not elevating oneself above others is one of the core values of the town and social media becomes a tool for social visibility that is the process of how social norms come to be and how they are negotiated Carnival logic and high impact visuality is pervasive in uses of social media even if Carnival is not embraced by all Trinidadians in the town and results in presenting oneself and association with different groups in varying ways The study also has surprising results in how residents are explicitly non activist and align themselves with everyday values of maintaining good relationships in a small town rather than espousing more worldly or cosmopolitan values
